B.C. Immigration Plan Questioned

LONDON (CP)—Tom Smith, Labor, told the House of Commons yesterday he had read Sir Henry Page Croft's report which proposed to send 10,000 British families to British Columbia and "I can find no responsible man in Canada to support it."

Mr. Smith continued: "It is misleading both to this country and to the Dominion to suggest you can place 10,000 persons in any part of the Dominion and make a success of that community settlement."

Catholic Priest Bound, Robbed

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police today said they believed two masked men who last night held up a Roman Catholic rector in his home here and robbed him of nearly $70 might be the same pair who took jewelry valued at $1,000 from a North Vancouver home two weeks ago in a similar robbery.

Monsignor Malcolm W. MacKinnon told police he was confronted by the masked men as he entered his home last night and forced to open his safe, from which they scooped the money.

He said one of the pair struck him over the head when he became confused while attempting to work the combination dial.

They also took about $5 in change and a watch from his pocket, but returned the watch when he explained it was a keepsake.

After forcing the elderly rector to lie on the floor, where they bound and gagged him, the pair fled.

Monsignor MacKinnon was found about half an hour later by Father E. McIntyre, the only resident of the rectory.

Similar tactics were used by two men who held up J. T. Sumnerfield, his wife and two servants in their North Vancouver home, threatened them and left them bound and gagged after attempting to obtain a large amount of money which they apparently believed was kept in the house.

Waley Asks To Be Freed From Alcatraz

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—Harmon Metz Waley, serving a sentence of 40 years in the federal prison at Alcatraz Island for the kidnapping of little George Weyerhaeuser, plans to ask President Roosevelt for a pardon on the ground he is not guilty of the crime for which he was sentenced, according to a letter received by Judge E. E. Cushman and filed with the clerk of the federal court here yesterday.

In the letter, Waley said he had pleaded guilty here more than three years ago because he feared he could not get a fair and impartial trial in the state courts, where he said the matter should have been decided.

Most of Jews May Leave Germany

LONDON (AP)—The British government today gave urgent consideration to a bold scheme under which the United States and the British Empire would find homes for thousands of German Jews seeking refuge from violence and restrictive laws in Germany.

The United States ambassador to Great Britain, Joseph P. Kennedy, working day and night on the problem since the latest wave of anti-Jewish violence began, was believed to be the author of the plan.

It was understood on the highest authority Prime Minister Chamberlain and Foreign Secretary Halifax, after a long session with the ambassador, had agreed to co-operate.

Although Mr. Kennedy declined to reveal details of the plan, it was understood it called for efforts to move not merely a few thousands but the majority of the Jews—estimated at 600,000—out of the Reich.

British Dominions, colonies and mandated territories, countries of South America, the United States, France, Belgium and The Netherlands would be asked to assist.

The co-operation of The Netherlands was considered assured, since Premier Hendrikus Colijn told the lower chamber of parliament today his government already had approached other countries on the problem of Germany's Jews.

Mr. Kennedy spent last week end with Malcolm MacDonald, Secretary for the Dominions and Colonies, who is immediately concerned with the problem in Palestine and the general refugee situation.

Yesterday Mr. Kennedy also saw Sir Horace Wilson, the close adviser who accompanied Mr. Chamberlain on his historic visit to Germany to confer with Chancellor Hitler.

In government circles it was said the U.S. ambassador was influencing the British government toward taking the lead in dealing with the plight of the Jews.

Every major nation would be asked to take as many German Jews as possible.

MAY CALL CONFERENCE

A conference may be called to discuss the problem in the light of the Nazis' current anti-Jewish measures, officially explained as retaliation for the killing of a German embassy secretary in Paris by a young Polish Jew.

In order to take care of many urgent cases, however, some Jews may be moved at once into British colonies and the United States. The support of France and The Netherlands has been sought.

Mr. Chamberlain, it was understood, now is seeking support of the Dominions for the plan.

Reports in London said the United States was ready to admit 30,000 Jews. It was believed Mr. Kennedy stressed the urgency of settling the question at once.

Premier Says Policy Endorsed

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister King, commenting on results of the three federal by-elections held yesterday, stated the Liberal win at Brandon, Manitoba, was "a striking endorsement of the policies and record of the government, and, in particular, of its present efforts to conclude a broad and comprehensive trade agreement with the United States."

He said:

"The net result of the recent by-elections is to leave the government at the beginning of the fourth year of the present parliament with a larger following in the House of Commons than it had immediately after taking office in 1935, notwithstanding that it had been given at that time the largest majority ever accorded a federal administration. "I need scarcely say that this expression of confidence on the part of the electorate is deeply gratifying to my colleagues and myself and to members of the party throughout Canada."

"The election of J. E. Matthews as member for Brandon marks the second contest within the past year in which a government supporter has been successful in a constituency which, in the general election of 1935, returned a Conservative candidate. As in Victoria, where the present Liberal member, Mr. Mayhew, won the seat which since 1908 had been held by a Conservative, the government's endeavors to further the extension of trade with other countries was one of the outstanding issues of the campaign."

"I am pleased that the government's objective and that of its followers in London, Ont., in not opposing Dr. Manion's return, has been appreciated by the electors of that constituency and that the new leader of the Conservative party will be able to take his seat in the Commons when Parliament reassembles at the beginning of the new year."

Electors in London, Ont., turned out in cold, dull weather yesterday and gave Hon. R. J. Manion, Conservative leader, an unofficial total of 11,354 votes, a majority of 3,145 over the 8,209 polled by his opponent, Everett O. Hall, C.C.F. candidate, and London schoolteacher. The total vote was about 10,000 less than the 30,101 cast in the 1935 general election when the late Major F. C. Betts, Conservative, defeated six other candidates.

Youth Held After Calgary Bank Hold-up Foiled

Staff Members
Bind Him After
T. A. Easton Fires
Teller Formerly Here

CALGARY, (CP)—A 19-year-old youth who gave his name as James Kirley, Calgary, was held by police today on a charge of assault and attempted robbery after employees of the Dominion Bank of Canada's main branch here had captured him in the building and turned him over to police.

Kirley's arrest came after bank officials reported to police a youth had entered the premises just before the branch was to have opened for today's business, grabbed a gun from the bank desk and pointed it at C. W. Jones, the manager, and Reg Mawer, a junior clerk, near the vault.

Bank officials told police the youth dropped the gun when Thomas A. Easton, a teller, fired two shots from behind a pillar, both of which struck the wall near the bandit's head. Other employees then overpowered the young man.

When police arrived, employees were sitting on the bound form of Kirley.

"He appeared to treat the whole affair as a joke," said Manager Jones, describing the affair as Kirley was hustled to the police car. "Then, after a few minutes, he started to struggle. He was easily overpowered."

JOB AWAITS HIM

Kirley told police en route to headquarters: "If I don't get back to work in 15 minutes I'll be fired."

He said he was employed by a local grain firm as a clerk. His job was to deliver grain to the bank, the youth, it was reported to police, pretended he had a gun in his pocket. It was only a tobacco pipe.

He was admitted to the bank by Junior Clerk Mawer, who answered the ringing of a bell at the main door shortly before the opening hour.

"This is a holdup," the youth told Manager Jones and Mawer after he had picked up a revolver from the desk of the bank accountant. Herding the manager and clerk in front of him, the vault had been reached when the shots from the teller's gun rang through the bank.

Quick-thinking of Bank Inspector C. Smith of Winnipeg brought police to the scene. Inspector Smith on entering the bank as the manager was being forced toward the vault, dashed into the basement and from there telephoned police.

Kirley will be arraigned in city police court tomorrow before Magistrate D. C. Sinclair.

LIVED IN VICTORIA

VANCOUVER (CP)—Thomas A. Easton, bank teller who fired two shots which employees said prevented a holdup of a Dominion Bank of Canada branch in Calgary today, was employed in the Dominion Bank here and at Victoria before going to Calgary four years ago.

Easton, 27, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Easton of Vancouver. He received his education in schools here.

His parents today received a message from him telling of the attempted holdup and assuring them he had not been injured.

Life Sentence For Robert Irwin

NEW YORK (AP)—Robert Irwin, the "mad sculptor" who killed a mother and her beautiful daughter and their apartment boarder on Easter morning, 1937, yesterday, accepted—but protesting gibberishly—a life in prison rather than the possibility of death in the electric chair.

The 31-year-old one-time divinity student and erstwhile asylum inmate abruptly pleaded guilty to second degree murder before completion of a jury to try him on first degree charges.

A thin, wasted figure ravaged by disease and weighing about 120 pounds, he shouted at first that he did not consider himself guilty of murder.

Irwin's victims were Veronica Gedeon, pretty young photographer's model; her mother, and Frank Byrnes, all slain in the early morning in a rage of twisted jealousy over Irwin's thwarted suit to win the affections of Veronica's sister, who married another.

BRITISH M.P.'S CONDEMN POLICY

Group Says Chamberlain
Weak on Colonies;
Eden in Move

LONDON (CP)—A meeting of the "Conservative private members' committee" in the House of Commons was declared in reliable lobby quarters last night to have condemned what they feared was the government's "policy of weak submission in regard to colonies," the Associated Press reported.

At the same time, the Associated Press said, a speech by Oswald Pirow, Defence Minister of South Africa, intimating he might favor a settlement to gain "peace at any reasonable price" was interpreted as indication Prime Minister Chamberlain's efforts to reach a general peace with Germany would not be halted by Germany's anti-Semitic campaign.

The statement by Mr. Pirow, who is sounding out Great Britain, Germany, Portugal and Belgium on the problem of Germany's demands for return of her pre-war colonies, came after Mr. Chamberlain had spoken in the House of Commons.

Anthony Eden, former Foreign Secretary who resigned rather than go along with Chamberlain's policy last February, in a speech at Oxford urged an all-party government, referred to "fresh outbreaks of lawlessness or brutality on some part of the earth's surface... every day and almost every hour" and warned, "the danger signals are up and plain for all to see."

NEW MOVE

In conjunction with Mr. Eden's speech, 34 Conservatives, including all those identified with his views, gave notice of a move to demand a "united national policy" to expedite rearmament and better conditions of the people.

The move was interpreted in some quarters as a possible step toward rallying under Mr. Eden all Conservative, Liberal and Labor elements dissatisfied with Mr. Chamberlain's policy.

Labor Minister Ernest Brown, closing the House of Commons debate, attacked Mr. Eden's ideas as "a new kind of appeasement like germs."

He said the former Foreign Secretary's national unity program would make Britain virtually a totalitarian state, even if it would be "neater and more tidy."

The Havas News Agency stated highly placed Conservatives told its correspondent in London that Mr. Eden was grooming himself "to step into the helm of the Conservative Party when the time arrives for Mr. Chamberlain's retirement."

Roumanian King in London

Carol and Son
Michael Greeted
By King George

LONDON (AP)—King Carol and Crown Prince Michael of Roumania arrived here today on a state visit to further Anglo-Roumanian ties at a time when Germany's economic push to the east has been regarded as threatening the neutral complexion of Carol's country.

King George, attended by Prime Minister Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary Halifax and other high officials, personally welcomed his visitors at Victoria Station, red-carpeted and flood-lighted for the occasion.

After an inspection of the guard of honor, the British and Roumanian kings entered an open state carriage and drove to Buckingham Palace. Prince Michael rode in the second of the five carriages which formed the procession. Thousands lined the route.

Four-year Term On Plea of Guilt

VANCOUVER (CP)—Harry T. Guy, 19, pleaded guilty in County Court today to three charges of robbery with violence and was sentenced by Judge A. M. Harper to four years in penitentiary on each count, the sentences to run concurrently.

"If a fellow can't get a job and has to make a living by bumming on the streets, it is not very nice," Guy told Judge Harper.

Prairie Farmer Shot to Death

SINTALUTA, Sask. (CP)—Examination of the body of J. A. Kaiser, 65-year-old Moosomin farmer believed killed by a transient traveling companion, today showed he had been shot three times in the back, Royal Canadian Mounted Police reported.

NAZI NEWSPAPERS CRITICIZE BRITAIN

Hitler's and Other
Sheets Say Cruelties
Seen in Colonies

By LYNN HEINZERLING
Associated Press Foreign Staff

BERLIN — The German press coupled the widening drive to remove Jews from the Reich's social and economic life today to a vigorous attack on "cruelties" attributed to British administration of her colonies — some of them until the Great War under German rule.

The editorials were in answer to British resentment against the Nazi anti-Jewish drive, which continues with Jews haunted by secret police, shorn of business connections, ordered to keep out of theatres, expelled from schools, facing a $400,000,000 levy on their wealth — and in despair awaiting new restrictive decrees under preparation.

HITLER'S PAPER LEADS

Chancellor Hitler's newspaper, Völkischer Beobachter, led a number of other papers in the chorus against Great Britain with an article under the headline "Inhuman suppression methods of English against the Arabs."

There was a brief history of British colonization with charges the colonizers blew up Arab houses in Palestine, killed women and children in India and committed other inhumanities in the Transvaal. (Germany wants to regain colonies she lost by the Great War peace. One section of British political thought now operates any kind of limitation of this as the basis for a peace understanding, largely because of British resentment against the anti-Semitic drive.)

Carew Martin Liberal Head

Returned Unanimously At Annual Meeting of Victoria Association

Carew Martin was returned unanimously as president of the Victoria Liberal Association at the annual meeting last night in the Chamber of Commerce.

Honorary presidents named by the meeting of 191 delegates from the various Liberal wards in the city and Oak Bay were Prime Minister King, Premier Pattullo, Hon. John Hart, Hon. Ian Mackenzie and R. W. Mayhew, M.P.

Charles E. Copeland Sr. was elected unanimously as vice-president and Arthur H. Cox was returned as secretary after a contest with F. N. J. White, retiring vice-president. E. E. Heath was returned as treasurer.

Mr. Martin occupied the chair and speakers were Hon. John Hart, Byron Johnson, Alan Chambers, Mrs. H. P. Hodges and W. T. Straith, M.P.P.

The president, in his brief report, referred to the Liberal victory in the Dewdney by-election in June and the Liberal convention at Kelowna in August. He praised the energy of the 20th Century Young Liberals of Vancouver Island and spoke of their convention in Nanaimo last month.

"These are the youngsters we want in elections; they are right on their toes," he said.

The treasurer's report showed a balance in the bank of $28.13.

Mr. Cox in his report showed a membership of 495 persons, 92 in Ward One, 62 in Ward Two, 94 in Ward Three, 72 in Ward Four, 113 in Ward Five and 58 in Wards Six and Seven.

FAVORS ICE RINK

Mr. Johnson said the Dominion

Government had recently passed far-reaching legislation. He referred to the Municipalities Aid Act, under which Vancouver had borrowed $800,000 at 2 per cent.

He spoke in favor of the proposed arena for Victoria. New Westminster, he said, last week opened a new rink with seating accommodation for 4,600 persons.

"The time will never come when you will get funds more cheaply than now," he said, urging Victoria to get behind the arena scheme. "Get out and work for that by-law," he said.

Mrs. Hodges felt also that Victoria needed a civic centre. She said she wished Victoria only had a little more of the community spirit of smaller places.

She favored new settlers in British Columbia, as proposed by Sir Henry Page Croft. Now was the time, she said, to do all possible to people the vast, empty spaces of this country.

Mr. Chambers also spoke of the Municipalities Aid Act and how various cities on Vancouver Island had taken advantage of it for necessary public works. Saanich, he said, had borrowed $40,000, Nanaimo $200,000.

CONFIDENCE RETURNED

Hon. John Hart said prosperity had returned to British Columbia because investors now had confidence in the government. Capital was coming in daily and helping to develop the great natural resources of the province, he said.

"That is why we have good times today," he said.

He spoke of the social services of this province, and said he was going to find more for such services as long as he could.

"I think we should make an effort to get more money for roads, to bring the tourists here," he said. "We have done a great deal for the municipalities, but I hope we will be able to do more."

ONLY ONE COMPANY

Of the Public Utilities Act, to be introduced at the present session of the Legislature, Mr. Hart said the government had no intention of taking in all companies. The only one to be affected would be the one supplying light and power.

"We have no grudge against that company," he said, "but they have no competition."

He said the government had every confidence it would win the present case before the courts on gasoline prices.

He spoke of the difficulties of taxation. The Dominion Government, he said, was taking more than $11,000,000 in income tax from British Columbia, including 80 per cent from the natural resources.

"If those resources can stand taxation the province should collect it, because the province owns those resources," he said. "I'm quite sure this anomaly will be corrected when the Rowell Commission makes its report."

The present debt of the province, the minister said, was $149,000,000, and not $200,000,000 as Herbert Anscomb had said, and the present government had only increased the debt by $12,000,000.

Revolution By Thinking Urged

Public Must Change Ideas, Colin Cameron Tells Gyros

"Our party does wish to bring about a revolution . . . a revolution of people's thinking—the people themselves will bring about any material revolution there might be," Colin Cameron, C.C.F. member for Comox, told members of the Gyro Club at luncheon today.

"On the interest which people take in the problems which confront them as a whole, rests the future of the natural order of society," he said. "The democratic ideal in British Columbia seems to be gradually undermined; there is a tendency to 'let George do it,' the C.C.F. member said in referring to the development of the province which, in his estimation, had been on the downward slope for the past few years."

He said the unemployed brought to the attention of the public the fact that all is not well with society. Many die-hard conservative minds found they had to recast their sense of values, because of this," Mr. Cameron asserted.

In speaking of the unemployment and relief situations the speaker said, "It is useless to try to solve these problems by the vain repetition of previous methods which have failed so far. There is a ludicrous display of blindness to the actual situation. The time has come when the people of British Columbia must find an adequate solution to the problem," he said.

Shanghai Trade Leader Silent

"My chief ambition at the moment is to see the Harvard-Yale football game next Saturday" was about all that W. H. Plant, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai and Far Eastern manager of United States Steel Corporation, had to say to newspapermen who met him on his arrival from the Orient in the Ss. Empress of Russia last night.

To reports that he was on his way to Washington to present to President Roosevelt details of a carefully-planned Japanese threat to the American commercial stake in China he would give neither confirmation nor denial.

Prominent in the International Red Cross, he admitted that he had been one of the six men who worked with Father Jacquinot in providing a safe refuge for 250,000 Chinese refugees in the Nan-tao quarter of Shanghai at the time of that city's capture by the Japanese.

Father Jacquinot is the French priest who also arranged a refuge for Chinese civilians in Hankow when it fell recently.

Of the Shanghai refugee work, Mr. Plant said: "He did it all—I was just hanging around."

Mr. Plant was to leave Vancouver this morning by train for Seattle on his way to Chicago and Boston.

"No plans at all" was all he would say about his intended movements after the football game.

Urges Better Jail Breakfasts

Dinners and suppers at Oakalla jail are excellent, but a more varied breakfast menu is needed, Harold Winch, C.C.F. whip, told the Legislature yesterday after visiting the institution. The men get rolled oats or cream of wheat every morning, but no butter, he said.

Mayhew Backs Arena Scheme

Victoria M.P. and Hon. John Hart Work For New Local Ice Rink

Support for the proposed ice arena for Victoria was pledged at the annual meeting of the Victoria Liberal Association last night by R. W. Mayhew, M.P., who told the gathering he had asked the government at Ottawa by wire what chance Victoria had of receiving a loan at 2 per cent under the Municipalities Aid Act. The answer would shortly be forthcoming, he said.

Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, assured the meeting he was prepared to sign the guarantee on the loan for the City of Victoria.

Mr. Mayhew said the young people of Victoria were as well equipped, mentally, as any other group of young people and physically they were well fitted.

"But we want to see them even better fitted physically," he said. "We want them to have the advantages of good clean sport and no sport, in my opinion, is better than the one they will get on a nice, fast sheet of ice."

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

He spoke also in favor of vocational education for the young people of Canada. He said it was now necessary for one to find employment, to be able to do a definite job.

Mr. Mayhew praised the Dominion Government for its policies, which he said were not spectacular or blazing or of the show window variety. The Municipalities Aid Act, he said, was to help men obtain jobs. In 10 months, he said, $47,000,000 had been loaned under the Housing Act.

"This money has gone out to help people get homes, because out of the homes come the people who are going to be the very foundation and backbone of the country. Other changes are coming also, but they will come deliberately and with reason and a Liberal Government will make them."

"I think I've been able to accomplish something for Victoria. There are many things needed; I'm really ashamed to tell them in Ottawa all the things we do need."

BUSY MORNING

In one morning in Ottawa, he took up 30 items of business with Hon. Ian Mackenzie, who enabled the local member to accomplish as much in three or four days as it otherwise would have taken in three or four months. He said every member of the federal cabinet was interested in Victoria "although some of you will say 'they don't show it; they don't come to see us very often.'"

Mr. Mayhew thanked the Liberal Association for its support in the past and said "probably all the strength it can muster will be needed before the end of 1939."

Extra Store Hours For Christmas

A plan by which retail store employees will be permitted to work two hours extra for three evenings previous to the Christmas holiday to take care of the holiday trade was discussed with the Board of Industrial Relations yesterday by a delegation of the Retail Merchants' Association, headed by Goldwyn Terry, president of the Victoria branch.

The board reserved its decision until it meets the provincial organization in Vancouver Thursday.

SALVATION ARMY OFFICIALS HERE

In town for today are Commissioner and Mrs. George L. Carpenter, Toronto, of the Salvation Army, accompanied by Brigadier Frank Ham, field secretary, also of Toronto, and Brigadier and Mrs. M. Junker, divisional commanders of the Salvation Army in British Columbia from Vancouver.

Mr. Carpenter spoke at the Kiwanis luncheon meeting today on the subject "Conditions As I Find Them in Canada," and he opened the afternoon session of the Legislature with prayer.

He also spoke at a gathering of women in the First Baptist Church later in the afternoon, at which Dr. Olga Jardine presided. This evening at 8, in the First Baptist Church, Mr. Carpenter will give a lecture on "An Army on the March." Premier T. D. Pattullo will bring greetings from the provincial government, Mayor Andrew McGavin will represent the city and Dr. A. S. Imrie the churches of Victoria.

A soldiers' meeting will be conducted by the Salvation Army commissioners at 9.45 tonight in the Sunday school rooms of the church.

Say War Worse For Civilians

Modern warfare would be worse for the civilian population, rather than the fighting forces, it was claimed during a discussion at a meeting of the Defence of Canada League, Division No. 1, in the Foresters Hall last evening.

It was because of this that the public should realize the urgent need for adequate defence measures, the discussion continued.

N. E. Fairweather presided during the meeting.

At the close, silent tribute was paid to the late Lieut.-Col. Lennox Irving, V.D., a former member of the league, and the secretary was instructed to forward a letter of condolence to his family.

Arena a Necessity

TO SAY THAT ONE OF VICTORIA'S most pressing requirements is a "full-service" arena is to propound an argument advanced in these columns dozens of times before. Mayor McGavin is on sound ground in his decision to submit a by-law on the matter to the taxpayers at the forthcoming civic elections. It is for them to say whether they wish the city to borrow the necessary money—which can be obtained from the Dominion Government on the approval of the provincial administration at 2 per cent—to carry out the scheme, or otherwise. Hon. John Hart, British Columbia's Minister of Finance and a warm supporter of any movement to improve the community's recreational facilities, already has declared he is prepared to sign the guarantee required by the authorities at Ottawa.

If the taxpayers approve the scheme—as the majority of the people in Greater Victoria hope they will—it should be understood that the operation of such an institution must have the wholehearted support of every organization interested in any way in its use. Indeed, it should not be too much to say that a "full-service" auditorium such as proposed will not only soon pay for itself and remain permanently self-sustaining, but also furnish a source of not inconsiderable direct and indirect revenue for the community as a whole. For it is a matter of common knowledge that in recent years conventions of important national and international organizations have not held their annual deliberations in Victoria because there has not been adequate accommodation available. The inference is obvious. Nor should the all-essential requirements of the youth of Greater Victoria be overlooked when this proposal is considered.

London-Rome Pact

PERHAPS WE MAY BE EXCUSED IF enthusiastic over the announcement that the Anglo-Italian "friendship" pact is to begin operating tomorrow. It is just seven months since this accord was concluded with an exchange of notes between the Earl of Perth, British Ambassador at Rome, and Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano. It has remained inoperative in the meantime because of the Spanish "incident." But now Premier Mussolini has withdrawn 10,000 Italian legionnaires from the ranks of Fascist-Rebel General Franco's army it is considered quite in order for Great Britain to go through the formality of recognizing the King of Italy as Emperor of Ethiopia, and to do, or leave undone, those things which are expected to make for perfect trust between the two nations.

Prime Minister Chamberlain told the House of Commons yesterday that the threat of war over the "Spanish situation" was now ended. By interpretation, this means he is fairly certain the Dictator-General will win, and permit the Iberian Peninsula to come under the aegis of the European totalitarian realm. This should not be taken to mean that Great Britain and France will now consider membership in the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo axis. Before such a development as a good deal of "appeasing" will have to be accomplished in numerous directions. Nor should this promulgation of the Anglo-Italian accord be considered an indication that the Spanish "incident" either is over or soon will be. No matter what may be done in London and Rome, the Spanish people—or, at least, the majority of them—will still try to solve their own problems, will still try to work out a solution of their difficulties that will not end in their becoming vassals to medievalism as represented by government on the Nazi-Fascist plan. And there is just a chance that Italy, encouraged by what Germany has been able to get by trickery, will not adhere to the strict provisions of the long-inoperative Anglo-Italian "deal."

A Government Gain

AS A RESULT OF THE BY-ELECTIONS yesterday the government's voting strength in the House of Commons at Ottawa was increased by one. Mr. James E. Matthews, who was short by a trifle more than 200 votes in the general election of 1935, will now represent the important riding of Brandon, won in 1921, 1925 and 1926 by the late Senator Robert Forke, a former Liberal Minister of Immigration. Incidentally, between 1900 and 1911, Brandon returned the late Sir Clifford Sifton, a Laurier minister.

In the three-cornered contest yesterday Mr. Matthews polled nearly 1,000 votes more than his Conservative opponent, with the C.C.F. not far trailing 3,000 behind in third place. No contest was necessary to fill the vacancy in the Quebec constituency of Montreal-Cartier, the Liberal standard-bearer, Mr. Peter Bercovitch, who had left the provincial for the federal arena, being unopposed. Mr. King's following in the Commons, with every seat filled, is now 180 out of 245—the largest majority given to any political party since Confederation.

Hon. R. J. Manion's easy election in London was expected and desired by the Prime Minister and his supporters. Mr. King made it clear soon after the former Minister of Railways in the Bennett regime—and, by the way, previously in the Liberal ranks—had been chosen leader of the National Conservative Party of Canada he would prefer his admission to the House of Commons to be by acclamation. In accordance with well-established custom, he left matters to the voters in such constituency as Dr. Manion might select for his endorsement or otherwise, and the government's supporters in London quite properly acquiesced in their leader's suggestion.

In the 10 contests held in South Wellington—the third election to be fought at the polls yesterday—since the beginning of the century a Conservative had won the day nine times, the exception being in 1921 when Mr. William Elliott won it as a standard-bearer of the Progressives. In this latest contest Mr. Karl K. Homuth ran up a plurality over his two opponents and so upheld the Conservative tradition of the constituency.

Pirow and Colonies

HON. OSWALD PIROW, THE UNION OF South Africa's Minister of Defence, is expected to leave London for Berlin on Thursday to discuss with Nazi officials the ticklish question of the restoration to Germany of her former colonial possessions. Since he left home several weeks ago, Mr. Pirow has exchanged views on this subject with Portuguese statesmen—Portugal, of course, is Britain's oldest ally—and with members of the British government. And it is because of his intimate understanding of the problem in Southwest and East Africa, not forgetting the fact that he is of German missionary ancestry, that it is thought he would be able to negotiate more successfully with the dictatorial gentry in Berlin than any British politician could.

When Prime Minister Chamberlain and Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax go to Paris next week they will have an opportunity of canvassing some sort of proposal to offer to Reichsfuehrer Hitler in reply to what is, after all, a blanket demand for the unconditional restoration of Germany's former colonial empire. The British Government's investigations are understood to have centred on the possibility of reaching an agreement with France, Belgium, South Africa and Portugal to give back something to Germany in return for a German promise to maintain the present equilibrium in Europe. Those opposed to returning the territory give three reasons for their stand: Germany could use her old colonies to establish air and naval bases across Britain's vital trade route; Britain could not ethically support transfer of colonies to the nationalistic policies of Germany; Germany has misrepresented her dependence on her former colonies.

After what has happened since German troops marched into the demilitarized Rhineland right down to yesterday's demand for still more Czechoslovakian territory—not to mention the latest attack on the Jews and everything for which Jewry stands—it ought to be simple enough for the average person to understand that the promise of no member of the Berlin oligarchy is worth a tinker's dam. Reichsfuehrer Hitler is no more concerned about the present equilibrium in Europe than he is about the late Queen Anne. It is Germany's future in Europe and elsewhere that is constantly uppermost in his mind. And the man who long ago said Germany had no further territorial ambitions takes a keen delight in keeping Britain and France guessing about his next move.

Too often the dangerous driver is the one who takes it for granted that the driver in front will not do anything foolish.

A NATIONAL CONSCIOUSNESS

From The Zone, Canadian Legion Organ in B.C.

In view of the recent proposal from Saskatchewan, the Canadian Legion platform of development of a national consciousness would appear to be entirely opportune.

Canada a united nation undoubtedly has a wonderful destiny, but Canada a heterogeneous conglomeration of individual provinces can never hope to attain even a mediocre position in world affairs.

Canada's destiny cannot be achieved by an assumption of provincial independence, but rather by a realization of provincial interdependence. The east needs the great agricultural resources of the west, and the west is largely dependent on the industrial resources of the east.

Politically exploited suspicion, and what is far worse, politically fostered injustices, are a formidable barrier to national unity.

Unity is only bred of understanding, and understanding is a product of education and intercourse. There is no organization in Canada better fitted to undertake the task of creating this national consciousness than the Canadian Legion. Its membership stretches from coast to coast, embraces many racial origins and every political party. The Canadian Legion has, which is more important, a mutual understanding, a mutual tolerance and a comradeship born of a common experience which is fundamental to national unity. The expressions "national consciousness" and "national unity" have been interchanged freely in this article. There can be no national consciousness devoid of unity.

IN THE RING

MR. HART'S BUDGET began to take it on the chin Monday. In the ideological jargon of these times, the opposition led off with a right-and-left. The right, as you would expect, came from our die-hard Rightist, Mr. Anscomb. The left came immediately afterwards from our unyielding Leftist, Mr. Winch. The budget was still in the ring at the end of the first round and its manager, Mr. Hart, was smiling.

Mr. Anscomb's speech was a supreme effort, a tour de force, a marathon effort of two hours and 20 minutes, and his best in this House to date. Not long ago Mr. Anscomb lost the Conservative Party leadership at Kamloops by the votes of 13 delegates. His speech yesterday seemed designed to prove that the 13 had made a grave mistake.

It was, in fact—though Mr. Anscomb was careful to repeat over and over that he had no authority to speak for his party—the kind of speech a party leader would make, covering most phases of government, laying down principles, advocating policies. Treacherous and hostile, too, a vivid contrast to Mr. Maitland's first speech, which was all sweetness and light.

However, it appeared clear that Mr. Anscomb was working loyally with the man for whom the 13 voted in Kamloops. No leader could fail to rejoice in a lieutenant and a speech like this. And perhaps Mr. Maitland also is going to abandon sweetness and light, now that the budget is down, and go in for sterner stuff.

Mr. Anscomb looks exactly what he is—a plain man of business with no faith in any newfangled economics, with no use for monetary and similar reforms, with no poetry whatever. He is huge, pale, strong-featured, bullock-voiced, the perfect expression of financial orthodoxy, a Tory rejoicing in his Toryism. Between him and Mr. Bruhn, who is half a Socialist, Mr. Maitland must be able to keep a working equilibrium, but this is a problem common to leadership. Mr. Pattullo has been balancing Mr. Hart and Dr. Weir, with only minor accidents, for five years.

NO MYSTERY

IT TOOK MR. ANSCOMB an even hour to come to the budget, for he had many other things to cover. Since Dr. MacDonald talked most of one afternoon it has become a dangerous practice in this House to judge a speaker by the time he takes to deliver his speech. Mr. Anscomb seems determined to talk longer and cover more ground than the next fellow. On that unspoken basis Mr. Anscomb ranked high, but his speech was first class despite its volume.

For him there is no mystery about the budget or, indeed, about government in any department. He looks at it all as a matter of dollars and cents, and he seems to think that if you follow Micawber's immortal advice to the young Copperfield, spending sixpence less than you earn, all your problems will be solved.

All the New Dealish notions about the More Abundant Life, all Mr. Pattullo's ideals of a Socialized Capitalism, all the McGeerish hopes of a new money system leave Mr. Anscomb completely cold. We don't need a new system, thinks Mr. Anscomb; we don't need a revolution; we don't even need Mr. Hart in the treasury. All we need is to spend less and leave things alone.

Mr. Anscomb's criticism of the budget comes down to this, that the government is collecting huge revenues and still isn't entirely paying its way. Almost in the same breath, however, he demands large new expenditures on roads. Apparently, therefore, there must be huge economies elsewhere, great reductions in public services. Where he does not say.

No politician in opposition need be expected to say that. It is an accepted axiom of politics since Macaulay's time that economy is always popular in general terms, disastrous in detail. But in the end, says Mr. Anscomb, some man must go into the treasury who will save our finances from ruin. Who is that man? Listening to Mr. Anscomb you had no doubt that he, for one, knew the answer.

A NEW ROLE

TO ALL THIS Mr. Winch's speech is a strange contrast. He has chosen a new role, a new tone, a kind of sweet reasonableness with hardly any of his old fire. There is only one flash of sarcasm at the start, when he says that Mr. Anscomb has no real policy and Mr. Anscomb retorts that his policy is "sound finance," and Mr. Winch, quick as a flash, retorts: "You should have left off the word finance."

Apart from that Mr. Winch had nothing to offer but constructive suggestions to the government, chief among them a heavy soak-the-rich tax on the profits of large corporations. The effect, one feels, was calculated, designed to show that the C.C.F. is not merely destructive, but can be helpful, too.

To Mr. Winch the budget is of no real importance—a facade of figures and statistics merely hiding the true condition of the country. The real test of our position, says he, is not found in ledgers, but in the stomachs of the people, and if they are not well filled it doesn't matter that the treasury is overflowing. If the people are poor the state is sick, whatever the financial doctors report; the budget surplus is only paint on the face of the dying body politic.

So there was no use Mr. Winch discussing the budget, and he didn't. After proposing more taxation on the large corporations, he concluded with another of his skillful manoeuvres, moving a want-of-confidence motion which demanded relief for

KEEP ON SMILING

To the Editor:—"Keep on Smiling" is a phrase that is frequently used and is becoming quite common. Just as a matter of fact, and not with the idea of causing any controversy, I would like to point out that when I was a corporal in the C.E.F., stationed at West Sandling, England, in 1916, I terminated all letters to my wife with the phrase "Keep on smiling." I had formed the habit of terminating all my letters with the phrase long before the Y.M.C.A. at West Sandling Camp put up a streamer with the words emblazoned thereon, "Keep on smiling."

JAPANESE OFF COAST

To the Editor:—Is there any truth in the persistent rumors that Japanese warships were off the coast of British Columbia during the recent European crisis? If so the people should be in possession of the facts.

I quote from an Auckland, N.Z. newspaper of October 12: "Japanese Fleet Cruising Off New Guinea." "Fruits of Chamberlain's Pro-Japanese Policy." "New Zealand in Danger From National Government Treachery."

Does the foregoing represent part of the pressure exerted by the Hitler-Mikado axis to intimidate Chamberlain into agreeing to the Czechoslovakian sell-out?

"Chamberlain is preparing, in the name of peace, to sell out China as he sold Czechoslovakia."

"But when Chamberlain betrays China he betrays New Zealand and Australia, too."

DAY OF SENSATION

To the Editor:—Obscure and retiring people do not count—that is, to any great extent. Motivation is the theme for success. Crash the public, get out of dark corners and get into the lamp-light—regardless.

It doesn't seem to matter with the public just how

If it starts with a bang and can be called a wow.

What you do has to be a startling procedure, something to take the public off their feet—so to speak, paralyze their attention with it focused directly on you so when they wake up they'll declare you great. In other words hypnotize them. You may even fib a little and say you thought you were headed another way. But be sure you attract attention and make a hit. If you do you're safe but if you don't you're a goner and you may be handcuffed, jailed or fined or most anything else which will emphasize the disgust in the public mind. This is the day for sensation!

The sensational people lead the day. Take it or leave it, they say. So why not get in their midst and light your spark. Which will kindle a light right through the dark?

It's success you're after in this everyday life. So wade right in with a chuckle and grin. And put on your armor for toil and strife.

To be ready for any task you might begin. It may spell success before many a day. But if not, it's better than idling away.

Golden days which God gives us. Expecting us to be very zealous.

the municipalities and an excess profit tax on large companies. Why the Conservatives allowed him to move the motion instead of moving one themselves was not clear. But they supported Mr. Winch on a formal division when Mr. Speaker ruled that the motion couldn't be introduced without a day's notice.

Mr. Winch quite evidently thought he had demonstrated once more that the C.C.F. is the actual opposition in this House. But the real work of the day had been done by the Conservatives, through Mr. Anscomb—a good day's work.

THE GUILTY

To the Editor:—Humanism and Socialism have gained many millions of converts in the last 20 years as the common people have seen the frightful and useless results caused by their leaders, who were and are instigated by the desire to loot or retain loot.

Can peace through fear of the German army-British navy combine last on such a foundation? No, the exploited peoples are at last waking up all over the earth—they are called rebels—strange to say, our good friends the American rebels won out.

The common man knows that clean-handed co-operation for the good of all could easily make this world a delightful place for us all to live in and enjoy and he is turning away from the madhouse created by the trade hunting, exploiting warmongers and thinking of a saner, better life of peace, plenty and co-operation.

This beautiful world of ours, with its days and nights, its seasons, trees and always wonderful flowers!

A REVERTED PROPERTY PLAN

To the Editor:—To help citizens to regain lost properties, a plan is under consideration by one of the eastern towns by which the city might dispose of its reverted lots, which have been taken over for arrears of taxes.

It is this, that they be offered first to the former owners at the assessed values and be given 10 years to pay for them, during which time they would only be required to pay the necessary yearly instalment and the current taxes. In case they decided to build a house on one of these lots while making the payments, the city to give a deed to them and allow the amount still owing the city be second claim on the property, preceded only by the loan that was required to build the house. Should the mortgage holder at any time, during the term of payments for the lot, foreclose, the arrears of taxes still owing on the lot would automatically take the form of current taxes.

Various suggestions have been offered from time to time to solve the problem of our reverted lots, and as yet, nothing really tangible done. It appears to me the foregoing has the basis of something worth our consideration.

ARTHUR HINDER.

A person is the only element in the universe that can consciously help to create and organize itself.—Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, pastor of Riverside Church in New York.

RAIL EARNINGS LAG

From Financial Post

Last year, earnings of a large number of the major industries in Canada approximated or exceeded 1929 levels. Railway earnings, however, continue at a relatively low level, recovery from the low of the depression being relatively small.

The peak year of railway operation was 1928. It is interesting to compare results of that year with 1937. Total freight carried by Canada's two major railway systems in 1928 amounted to 98,205,000 tons, and passengers carried numbered 33,730,000. This compares with 65,964,000 tons of freight and 18,024,000 passengers in 1937.

Freight carried by the Canadian Pacific in 1928 totalled 42,977,000 tons, compared with 29,843,000 tons in 1937. Passengers carried in 1928 numbered 14,751,000 as against 7,821,000 in 1937.

Gross operating revenues of the C.P.R. in 1937 at $145 millions were $106 millions lower than in 1928 and $76 millions lower than in 1927. Net income before interest on funded debt, but after steamship and hotel depreciation and rentals, amounted to $29.5 millions in 1937 compared with $61.8 millions in 1928.

Re-establishment of earnings on the 1928 level is difficult to envision at the moment. In any case, the 1928 figures reflect boom conditions. A better comparison would be with 1930, which the railways regard as a more normal year. In that year gross revenues of the C.P.R. amounted to $196 millions. Net income before interest on funded debt totalled $32 millions.

Tender System To Be Changed

Hon. F. M. MacPherson Says Department Has Nothing to Hide

Contracts for public works in British Columbia, commencing the first of the year, will be classified A, B and C, each class having in mind the financial backing of the contractors and the amount of equipment they possess, Hon. Frank M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, announced in public accounts committee of the Legislature yesterday morning.

He said he had decided to do this following a survey of the State of Washington's system of awarding contracts on public works.

"I have nothing in this department that I want to keep from the notice of the public," he said.

Since he became minister of public works, Mr. MacPherson said, the department had called for 104 tenders and all but three had been called publicly and opened in public. Only three contracts had been let to selected firms, he said. One was for Marine Drive work in Vancouver, following heavy rains in January, 1933. An emergency arose at that time, he explained. The Kingsgate-Radium contract had been awarded to selected firms "because I picked contractors I thought could do the work," Mr. MacPherson said.

DONE PROPERLY

"Anyone wanting a job done in a proper way does it in that manner," he said, adding several times in calling publicly on smaller jobs he had been "nipped."

There has not been a cent wasted and better work has been done than ever before," he said.

"That is a matter of opinion," replied R. W. Bruhn, Conservative, Salmon Arm and Minister of Public Works in the Talmie Government.

MacPherson said the Minister was not done by contract. He said the department bought the asphalt so that the contractor would make nothing on it. In addition to this $75,000 had been saved on sales tax.

The department also bought its own tar and crushed gravel, saving further money for the province, the Minister said.

Mr. Bruhn and Mr. Maitland charged Mr. MacPherson with being evasive, because he had referred them to public accounts and had not received the information they wanted until a year after they had asked it.

Mr. Maitland asked for detail on the $32,000 expenditure for the visit last year of the Governor-General to this province.

Gas Reduced In Alberni

PORT ALBERNI—The price of gasoline dropped two cents in the Alberni last week, a voluntary reduction by the Alberni District Gasoline Dealers' Association, who, however, will insist that all purchases of gasoline and oil must in future be paid in cash or by credit card.

The reduction means that standard gasoline now sells for 29c per gallon and ethyl for 31c. The association insists that recent action of the fuel board has nothing to do with the lowering of the price here.

120 Convention Delegates Here

Approximately 120 people from various parts of the United States were in town today between Seattle boats, prior to the National Grain Convention, which will be held in Portland next Wednesday.

The visitors were met at the dock by a delegation comprising J. B. Munro, E. G. Rowbottom, Lloyd Craig and Major Gordon Smith, representing the government, and Frank Waring, W. J. Clark and Norman Foster, for the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

They were taken to Butchart's Gardens soon after their arrival, and they also paid a short visit to the Legislative session before leaving on the 4.30 boat for Seattle again.

Reviews Work of Canadian Legion

Represents Finest In Community, J. R. Bowler Declares

"The Canadian Legion is a national organization, and it must remain national in outlook and scope," J. R. Bowler, Dominion Legion secretary, told a meeting at the Britannia Branch last night.

On the last leg of an extended lecture tour throughout Canada, the Legion official was guest at a dinner of local Legion members in Spencer's dining-room previous to his address at the View Street branch, in which he told the meeting of the work of the Canadian Legion in Canada.

In referring to the Canadian Legion, Mr. Bowler said: "We now have a very great organization, our branches represent a cross-section of the finest element in every community. The speaker said in his tour across the country he had found nearly all the branches in fine financial condition; all the provincial commands were solvent and the Dominion membership at the present time was approximately 180,000."

SERVICE BUREAU

Mr. Bowler described to the meeting of the work of the service bureau at Ottawa. The group was established for the purpose of assisting anyone who needed help whether they were Legion members or not.

It cost the organization $25,000 annually to maintain the service. It was helped by a grant from the Dominion Government of $9,000 each year, he said. The work of the Legion was greatly helped by the revenue from the sale of poppies each November, he declared. If the cigarette sponsored by the organization, which is now on the market, is a financial success, the economic problems of the Legion would become comparatively simple, he told the meeting.

During the course of his address Mr. Bowler declared "Victoria and district has always been recognized as one of the strongest and best Legion divisions in Canada."

LEGISLATIVE WORK

The speaker then described the legislative work of the Canadian Legion staff maintained to see all veterans received justice under existing legislation. "The list of accomplishments in this field is without parallel; no other organization can hold a candle to it," Mr. Bowler asserted. "It didn't take the Legion 20 years to pick up the legislative torch," he said.

"The right of appeal under the Pension Act was brought about by Canadian Legion efforts. Credit for the initiative in the passing of the War Veterans Allowance Act could go to the organization," he said.

In referring to unemployment, the speaker said it was one of the vital problems of the Legion and everything possible was being done to take care of service men in that regard. Mr. Bowler declared he hoped the next session of the Dominion House would find a solution to all unemployment.

In a brief address at the dinner Sir Percy Lake, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., declared "We feel all our representatives in the Dominion are carrying the banner to the best of their ability." About 100 were present at the banquet, at which W. G. Stone, Mr. Bowler and W. Matthews, first provincial vice-president of the organization, spoke briefly. Lieut.-Col. W. N. Winsby was in the chair.

CITY SCHOOL BOARD BRIEFS

Warm tribute to efficiency of fire drills carried out during Fire Prevention Week was contained in a letter from Fire Chief Alex Munro. Recommendations of the chief that a standard alarm system be installed in schools where there were none at present, that the South Park School emergency exit be improved and certain door fasteners be replaced were referred to the building and grounds committee.

Approval was given a proposal to install tool lockers at the Central Junior High School at a cost not exceeding $60.

School attendance increased 42 in October over September, while there was an 89 decrease in comparison to October, 1937. Last month's attendance was 4,900. In September it was 4,858, and in October last year 4,989. Average attendance for the month was 4,939.75 of a total enrollment of 1,150.

Purchase of six tables for practical arts classes at Sir James Douglas School from Moore-Whittington at a cost of $85 was authorized.

PASSENGERS QUEUE DURING INTERVIEW

A lone newspaperman going out after an interview is likely to be mistaken for anything from the Fuller brush man to a tax collector, but the 10 from Victoria and Vancouver who descended on W. H. Plant, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai, in the lounge of Ss. Empress of Russia last night were more honored; they were taken for immigration officials and world travelers.

Somebody produced a page from a news magazine containing a reported comment of Mr. Plant's in Shanghai. To read it more conveniently Mr. Plant laid it down on the top of the counter of the souvenir shop in the lounge. The covey of reporters crowded around, one of them behind the counter.

Promptly a queue of passengers began to form, fishing their passports out of their pockets for inspection by the immigration people.

The comedy continued for several minutes, with the passengers waiting patiently in line, until two photographers who were along with the crowd blew off their flash bulbs.

The passengers fled in bashful confusion.

Schools to Have Longer Holiday

Victoria school children will have nearly three weeks holiday this Christmas, the Department of Education advised the City School Board last night.

The schools will break up on December 16, and children will not resume studies until January 4. It was originally intended the classes should commence in the new year on January 2. The extra two days makes the holidays just two days short of three weeks, one of the longest Yuletide vacations the children ever had.

was held in the parish hall of St. Martins-in-the-Fields Thursday evening, the occasion celebrating the 12th birthday of the church, Rev. Canon Stocken presided.

The concert program consisted of several clever items by the Sunday school girls, and vocal and instrumental solos. The newly-formed Glee Club of St. Martins made its debut. At the conclusion of the concert the Ladies' Guild served refreshments to all present.

Anscomb Urges

Pay as You Go

Conservative Member Demands Government Control Spending

After a scathing review of the provincial government's entire fiscal policy, Herbert Anscomb, Victoria, chief financial critic for the party, demanded in the Legislature yesterday the treasury uses its record revenues to pay its way fully by halting its "spendthrift zeal" and financing on its ability to pay.

Leading the Opposition attack on the budget, Mr. Anscomb spoke for two hours and 20 minutes. Besides criticizing the budget, he attacked the administration for failure to handle unemployment adequately, for failure to implement health insurance, for failure to outline to the House the proposed Yukon annexation deal, for sponsorship of mass British immigration and failure to fight for the Ottawa agreements.

He charged the sit-down strike of jobs in Vancouver last summer was a miniature uprising fostered by Communists and Harold Winch, C.C.F. member, who immediately replied he was as much surprised as anyone else by the sit-down.

He demanded the Health Insurance Commission be discharged until the government was ready to go ahead with the scheme, instead of letting the chairman "wander around Europe on a Cook's tour." And instead of leasing new up-town offices for the municipal department the government should put this branch into the health commission's offices.

GASOLINE CASE

Mr. Anscomb said the former chairman of the economic council had made a pretty mess of trying to fix the price of gasoline. The finance minister, he said, made a "Hitler-like" threat to the gasoline companies, and the Premier jumped around from one legal position to another until people thought the whole business was a huge joke.

Finally, he said, it had reached the position where among the five judges of the appeal court that would sit on the case one was Mr. Justice D. A. Macdonald who made the fuel commission report, another was Mr. Justice C. H. O'Halloran who was the commission counsel, and a third Mr. Justice Gordon Sloan who appointed the commission.

"I don't say any of these three will sit on the case but in any event the oil industry won't get the benefit of a full court on the case. Furthermore, I'll guess that by the time it gets to the Privy Council hundreds of thousands of dollars will be spent of public and private money and the legal profession alone will benefit."

Mr. Anscomb said the government forced through a one-man public utility commission responsible to the cabinet he would do all he could to see it was repealed.

Turning to the budget he said the finance minister should long ago have pegged current expenditure at $25,000,000 and applied the surplus revenue to debt redemption. Failing to provide sinking funds was absolute dishonesty with the province's creditors.

He disputed Mr. Hart's claim of improved provincial credit. If it was as good as he said he would have funded the $40,000,000 of provincial treasury bills. The only way he got the $3,000,000 road loan at 3 1/2 last year was by frightening eastern financiers with the bogey the Communists might win the election if the money was not forthcoming.

Actually B.C.'s bond rating was fifth in the list of provinces, he asserted.

He attacked the provincial balance sheet as not in any way representing the true state of affairs, said an independent group of trustees should administer the sinking funds but argued future debt should be on a serial-debt basis to ensure payment when due.

He roundly scored both the Premier and finance minister for not carrying out their pledges of aid to municipalities, saying social service charges should be immediately taken from the cities as a temporary measure regardless of what the government intended to do finally.

With a final call for a halt in the government's spending spree he said the Liberals had piled up $80,000,000 of the debt in 15 years of office in good times and the Conservatives $62,000,000 in five years of the worst depression in world history.

Blames Hitler for Upswept Hair

Dorothy Thompson
Explains Why at
New York Dinner

Thompson believes Chancellor Hitler may be responsible for the current trend of women's fashions—upswept hair and all.

"I mean that fairly seriously," said the prominent news columnist and wife of author Sinclair Lewis at a dinner here last night at which she received the 1938 American Women's Association award for eminent achievement in the field of journalism.

Miss Thompson said there existed in the world today a tendency to send women back to the home. At the same time children were being taken out of the home as early as possible for military service, giving the women less and less to cook for.

"So women have nothing to do but try to keep their curls on top of their heads, going to the hairdresser three days a week and wearing clothes in which it is impossible to move. Soon I suppose we'll be learning to swoon and have the vapors again."

Victorian Weds Port Alberni Bride

Before a background of russet and yellow chrysanthemums at First United Church, Port Alberni, last evening, the wedding was solemnized by Norma Ernestine, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson of Port Alberni, to Mr. William Herbert Mercer, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mercer of Haultain Street, Victoria. Rev. A. McLean performed the ceremony, and Mrs. J. B. Wood presided at the organ. Acting as ushers were Mr. Hugh McKay and Mr. Ralph Wooley. Mr. J. R. Hedley supported the bridegroom as best man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in turquoise tulle, with wide flowing skirt and circular train, the bodice fashioned with leg-of-mutton sleeves and Medici collar. Her fingertip veil hung from a hair posy of gardenias, and she carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Miss Doreen Thomas was the bridesmaid, attired in rose-toned tulle, with silk lace bolero in the same tone and short puff sleeves. She wore a semi-coronet composed of gardenias and carried a shower bouquet of gold and white chrysanthemums. During the signing of the register Mr. Bob Evans contributed the solo "At Dawning."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where Mrs. Nelson, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Mercer, mother of the bridegroom, received the guests. Mrs. Nelson wore a smart gown of black silk crepe with jacquette, and hat of black and white; Mrs. Mercer wearing an ensemble of marine blue, with matching hat and accessories. Both wore corsage bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Russet-toned chrysanthemums and yellow asters decorated the reception rooms, and pink roses and pink tapers decorated the three-tiered wedding cake embedded in pink tulle that centred the bride's table. When leaving for a wedding trip to Victoria, en route to the Puget Sound cities, the bride wore a frock of cinnamon brown wool and a broad-tail topcoat of hunter's green, trimmed with brown fox fur, with hat and matching accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Mercer will reside on Burde Street, Port Alberni. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mercer, Miss Elsie Mercer and Mr. Louis Mercer of Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nelson of New Westminster.

CHINESE CANADIAN YOUTH FORUM

The regular meeting of the Chinese Canadian (1) Youth Forum was held at the home of Miss Alice Gee last night with Ying Hop, regional chairman, presiding. A letter of appreciation for the Golden Dragon Concert was received from Miss F. A. Russell, secretary of the directors of Queen Alexandra Solarium.

Another letter from Major L. Bullock-Webster praising the Chinese Canadian youth movement was read. A box of chocolates from a Colquhoun resident was also acknowledged. Following a discussion concerning the Dominion Drama Festival, the winners of the Forum ping-pong tournament were reported as follows: Ying Hop (finals), and Douglas Jung and Elmer Ngai (semi-finals).

Instead of the formality of the customary opening ceremony, the visit of King George and Queen Elizabeth to the new Children's Hospital in London was marked by scenes such as this. One of the little patients appears to have a toothache (or a large mouthful of cake) but all will undoubtedly have forgotten whatever it is that ails them when the party is over and their royal visitors have gone. The King, incidentally, has strong views on such ceremonies, regarding it as absurd to "open" a building already occupied and in use.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Miss A. McDermott of Portland, Oregon, is visiting in Victoria with her grand-aunt, Mrs. C. O'Neill, Wark Street.

The affair, which was attended by about 100 guests, was held in the lower lounge, ferns and autumn flowers making effective color contrast against the mahogany hangings. Mrs. J. D. Hunter, Mrs. E. V. Finland, Mrs. Herbert Anscomb, Mrs. L. H. Eyles (Chilliwack), Mrs. Macgregor Macintosh (Salt Spring Island) and Mrs. W. H. M. Haldane presided at the tea-table, which was centred with an artistic arrangement of Buckingham chrysanthemums and lighted with tall green tapers in silver candelabra.

A delightful surprise party was given Mrs. Cooper at her home, 2540 Garden Street, on November 12. The hostess was sent on a false mission while the guests gathered together and surprised her on her return home. Cards and dancing were enjoyed, a series of old-time dances being danced to the broadcast of the "Haymakers." Mrs. A. Pettford entertained the guests with a trumpet solo, and all joined in singing "Happy Birthday to Mrs. Cooper and Mary Mathews." A buffet supper was served with Mrs. Pettford and Mrs. R. L. Mountain serving. The guests included: Mrs. E. Cooper, Mrs. H. Mountain, Mrs. C. Grath, Mrs. W. Middleton, Mrs. A. Pettford, Mrs. S. Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. S. Mathews, Miss Mary Mathews, Rose Cooper, Betty Grath and Mr. Bill Davies.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Stacey of Ganges Harbor were "at-home" on Thursday afternoon and evening on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary. Tea was served from a table covered with a lovely hand-made lace cloth, which had been sent out from England, where it had been used at the celebration of Mrs. Stacey's parents' golden wedding. Four years ago, and centred with a handsome three-tiered wedding cake. The many beautiful gifts were also displayed in the dining room, prominent among them being the inscribed silver salver from several friends and the staff of Mount Brothers, of which Mr. Stacey is a member. Mrs. Stacey was assisted in pouring tea by Mrs. Carl Seymour. During the evening bridge was played, four tables taking part, and prizes being won by Mrs. E. Parsons and Mrs. Wm. Allan Jr. of Victoria. The toast to the host and hostess was given by Mr. L. Mount and suitably replied to by Mrs. Stacey. Mr. and Mrs. Stacey, who have resided on Salt Spring Island for nearly 23 years, were married in Holy Trinity Church, Vancouver, on November 10, 1913, by Rev. Benham.

Mrs. George MacMillan, who has been spending the last week in Victoria as the guest of Mrs. G. Bjornsfelt, 326 Zela Street, Oak Bay, has returned to her home in Duncan.

The engagement is announced of Florence Edith, younger daughter of Mrs. W. S. Fraser, 1302 Rockland Avenue, and the late Walter S. Fraser, to Mr. Ernest Gray, only son of Mrs. T. Gray, Menzies Street, and the late Thos. Gray, the wedding to take place quietly on November 23.

Miss Enid Hughes, whose marriage will take place this week, was honored at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday evening at her home, assisted by Miss Etta Cowan. The many lovely gifts were concealed beneath the "crinoline" skirt of a doll whose bouquet was a corsage for the guest of honor. Several amusing games were played and refreshments served. Those attending were the Misses Etta Cowan, Annie Collins, Pat Cummerburch, Margaret Bearse, Vime Kilsby, Doreen Kennedy, Eileen Lanigan, Janet Marriotte, Sheila Watson and Peggy Mulliner.

In honor of Miss Hazel Hansen, whose marriage to Mr. John B. Rimmer will take place this week, a miscellaneous shower was given last night by Mrs. T. B. Robinson and Mrs. A. McBeath, at the home of Mrs. Robinson, Wollastan Street. The reception rooms were prettily arranged with pink and bronze chrysanthemums. The many gaily-wrapped presents were concealed in a basket decorated with blue and white crepe paper and trimmed with true-lovers' knots and tiny wedding bells. This stood in the centre of the living room, under a dainty silver sailing ship which was suspended by streamers from the chandelier. An evening of music and songs was enjoyed, with Miss Joyce Robinson presiding at the piano. Later a buffet supper was served from a table arranged with a centrepiece of bronze chrysanthemums in a silver basket. The invited guests were Mesdames M. McDuff, L. Hansen, C. Cookman, T. Riley, T. Williams, R. Dunn, J. Wright, G. Williamson, C. P. Kerridge (Chilliwack), Ironsides, B. Blevins, Miller, and Misses E. Phillips, Joyce Robinson and Peggy McBeath.

World's Council Women Made Plea For Peace

Local Council Hear Moving Messages Sent to Czechoslovakia And German Women; Support Appeal for Better Quarters At Oakalla for Women Prisoners

"Faithful to its principles, the International Council of Women has, in the tragic period through which the world has passed in the last few weeks, done everything in its power to oppose the settlement of the conflict by armed force."

TO GERMAN WOMEN

This was the preamble of a letter received from Baroness Boel of Belgium, president of the I.C.W., and read at yesterday's meeting of the Local Council of Women, held in the Y.W.C.A. The letter recapitulated the various messages sent to Germany, Great Britain, the United States, France, Italy and other nations, that to Germany imploring "German women and mothers to bring all their force to bear, in community with their sisters in all countries through the Deutschen Frauen, in order to achieve the preservation of peace on the basis of peaceful settlement of the present conflict."

The International Council also sent to the National Council of Women of Czechoslovakia an expression "of the great concern it takes in the immense suffering borne by your country at this time, and its deep admiration for the dignity with which your nation has resigned itself to making, calmly and with discipline, heroic sacrifice in favor of peace. May she one day find reward for her renunciation."

OAKALLA CONDITIONS

The meeting endorsed a resolution from the provincial branch of the John Howard Society protesting against the crowded and unsanitary conditions of the women's quarters at Oakalla, and urging the Provincial Government to take immediate steps towards the erection of suitable quarters for women prisoners.

Dr. Olga Jardine presided at the meeting, and standing tribute was paid to the memories of Mrs. Helen Edith Bridges, Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. Richards.

Mrs. Wm. MacManus gave a comprehensive report on films and reading matter, urging the showing of more educational films in Canada. She spoke of the fine work done by the Legion of Decency in the United States, and noted that, out of 580 films examined by them, only seven had been condemned.

SETTLEMENT PLAN

The council endorsed a resolution from the Provincial Council supporting Premier Pattullo's settlement plan, in connection with which the local council president spoke of the report given to the British government by Sir Henry Page Croft concerning his colonization scheme. Endorsement was also given to an appeal made through the Kamloops Local Council that the Provincial Health Department be requested to extend their clinical service so that the interior be visited at least once in three years.

TOURIST ACCOMMODATION

Miss Marjorie Hill's report of the special committee, working under the housing and town planning committee, on the matter of securing some control of tourist accommodation facilities, was received and filed. The view was expressed therein that there was

Tiny Baby Incubated In Bureau Drawer

NEW YORK (CP)—A scientific hospital incubator today housed the two pounds one ounce, three and a half month prematurely-born baby of Mrs. Marie Trichard and he is doing fine.

But it is to a bureau-drawer incubator improvised by 29-year-old Dr. Edward Kreusser that credit for the infant's life must go.

The young doctor, seeing the mother had withstood the birth well yesterday, packed her off to a hospital in an ambulance and devoted all his skill to save the child.

What was needed was an incubator, Dr. Kreusser decided, and, looking around the barely-furnished bedroom he noticed the bureau of deep drawers. Taking one of the drawers the doctor constructed a tent over it and then, wrapping the baby well, placed it inside with a hot water bottle beside it. Snug and safe the infant reached the hospital where it was immediately transferred to a real incubator.

"A little fellow like that absorbs the outside air," Dr. Kreusser said today. "As a matter of fact, they're cold-blooded animals. The main thing is to keep them warm. That's all I did with him."

Weddings

BARNES-SLUGGETT

Central Baptist Church was the setting for the pretty wedding on Saturday evening of Daisy Belle, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sluggett, Brentwood, and Mr. James A. Barnes, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barnes, Victoria.

Rev. J. B. Rowell conducted the ceremony in the presence of a large congregation, the church being effectively decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. W. Sluggett, and wore a princess gown of white satin with a lace collar and insets of lace in the shoulders. Her veil of net was arranged with orange blossoms in cap effect, and she carried a bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Alma Sluggett was her sister's maid of honor and wore a pretty frock of pale pink lace, and the bridesmaid was Miss Edith Price in a frock of pale blue net with panels of lace in the skirt. They both carried sheaves of pink chrysanthemums. Daphne Fairall, in a dainty frock of pale green taffeta, and Marie Kerr, in pink silk, both nieces of the bride, were flower girls, and carried Victorian posies of mixed flowers. Mr. Jack Barnes was his brother's best man, and Mr. Charles Sluggett and Mr. Richard Roe were ushers. Mrs. M. W. Tapscott sang "O Promise Me" during the service, and Miss Dorothy Clarke presided at the organ.

A reception was held later in the K. of C. Hall, where dancing was enjoyed and a buffet supper served. Before the bride cut the cake, which stood on a small table between vases of pink carnations, the toast was proposed by Mr. H. Attfield, an old friend of the bridegroom's family. Mrs. J. Fairall, an aunt of the bride, received the guests in a smart suit outfit, assisted by Mrs. D. Campbell in a wine ensemble, who both wore corsage bouquets of pink carnations.

After a honeymoon on the mainland, for which the bride left in a brown and green costume, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will make their home on Simcoe Street.

Among the guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Gimmell and Mrs. F. Elliott, Vancouver, aunts of the bride, and Jack and Maxine Elliott, her cousins, and Mr. Charles Brown, Cowichan Lake, an uncle.

Girls as Cattle Judges at Big Toronto Fair

TORONTO (CP)—Two 16-year-old girls from Lethbridge, Alta., spent an afternoon at the Royal Winter Fair yesterday judging dairy cattle. After the judging was over, they told a reporter they reckoned women might judge prospective husbands just about the same way.

If they do, the men who marry the two girls—Joan Webb and Elaine Hamilton—are going to have their ribs punched, their teeth examined, their feet inspected and their hair pulled. That's the process the girls used on the cattle.

Part of a group of 'teen-aged farmers, who have been brought to the fair as judges by the Canadian Council of Boys' and Girls' Club work, the girls were members of the dairy cattle judging crew.

Their fathers, they said, have dairy cattle farms near Lethbridge. They are both interested in cattle, not so very interested in men, fond of "the wide, open spaces," and think Toronto is "swell."

Boy Pianist Wins Critics' Praise

New York Prodigy Hailed as Gifted Performer

NEW YORK (CP)—Louis Katchen, 12-year-old New Jersey pianist who plays football for relaxation, won the acclaim of New York music critics today as "an instinctive musician" with an "untroubled command of technique."

Also commended was the youngster's aplomb—the same aplomb with which Master Katchen turned up unannounced at a Philadelphia Symphony rehearsal last year and told conductor Eugene Ormandy he had come to play. Amused, Ormandy accepted the offer and discovered a fine musician.

In his first individual concert at the Town Hall last night young Katchen romped through a program of Bach, Beethoven, Schumann, Brahms and Chopin.

The New York Times critic commented: "He has a keen awareness of style, an untroubled command of technique and a physical aplomb that seemed incompatible with the chubby innocence of 12 years."

The World Telegram was also lavish in its praise: "Unquestionably he is a highly gifted performer, possessing a wealth of assurance, to start with, as well as a formidable technique for one so young."

A challenge to Health-minded People

Give Dr. Jackson Meal this 30-day Breakfast Test..

Then try again the cereal you had been using and SEE HOW GLAD YOU ARE TO GET BACK TO DR. JACKSON MEAL.

Who is Dr. Jackson?

At 50 years of age Dr. Jackson was a complete physical wreck, given but a few months to live, by the great Sir Wm. Osler. He was rapidly going blind and crippled. It was then Dr. Jackson invented Roman Meal (now Dr. Jackson Meal) to see if a complete change of eating and living habits would rejuvenate his body. He lived entirely upon Roman Meal for months taking systematic exercise in the fresh air. Today in his 81st year, Dr. Jackson has the strength, stamina and resistance of a trained young athlete and challenges physical degeneration, old age and sickness to attack him.

For valuable free literature on food and health write Robt. G. Jackson, M.D., 571 Vine Avenue, Toronto.

Why do I make this challenge?

I'm confident I can convince you that what you eat and drink are the most important contributions you can make to your health and happiness. I know of thousands who have proved it. I myself, in my 81st year, have the body of a young trained athlete. I defy physical degeneration, old age, colds and disease. I write books at 80 that have world-wide circulation. I never tire. I find each day too short.

So I make this challenge to you: dare you accept it? Whether or not you use my products is not vital to me—but it is to you.

For 30 breakfasts only eat Dr. Jackson Meal (formerly Roman Meal) and fruit, and drink my beverage Kofy-Sub—the richest drink in nerve-building mineral salts and blood-making iron known to me. At the end of 30 days give yourself a check-up. See how you feel.

THEN go back to your former cereal and beverage for a few weeks and again check yourself up. That's all. I have no urge for you to continue using my cereals and beverage. If you can find any others of equal health-building value, then do not use mine. That's fair enough, isn't it?

If you accept this challenge you'll find at the end of 30 days that I've done you a real service by making you conscious of the fact that the right kind of food and drink are the most important things in your daily life.

Robt. G. Jackson M.D.

Excess Profits Tax Is Urged

Harold Winch Proposes Levy to Finance Municipal Aid

Levy of a super-tax on excess corporation profits to raise funds for hard-pressed B.C. municipalities was advocated in the Legislature yesterday by Harold Winch, C.C.F. whip, Vancouver East.

Mr. Winch attempted to force a vote on the proposal as an amendment to the budget address, but the government declined to accept it and he was defeated on division 28 to 13 in appealing the Speaker's ruling that he was out of order. Conservatives solidly supported the C.C.F. against the Liberals.

"The finance minister can find money for the municipalities if he wants to go after it," Mr. Winch said.

"Besides the super profit tax there are many companies with depreciation reserves that run into millions. This is a well-known way of escaping taxation."

"You must have been reading my mail," Hon. John Hart commented.

"I insist the people have a right to go after this money which is made from the exploitation of our natural resources," Mr. Winch continued.

CLAIMS IT IS DUTY

"The avenue is wide open and it is the finance minister's duty to use it when the municipalities are in their present position," Mr. Winch asserted.

Mr. Winch also urged reorganization of government departments in the interests of economy and efficiency.

He said there should be Ministers of Natural Resources and Welfare, the former to take under his department mines, fisheries and tourist trade. In handling welfare at present, he said, there was great duplication of services, as well as inefficiency. He favored a complete revision of welfare in the province.

NEED FOR IMPROVEMENT

"There is need of vast improvement in the way the business of the people of this province is handled," he said.

"We all know there's trickery. There isn't a cabinet minister here who doesn't pad his estimate, because he knows the Minister of Finance will cut them anyway."

Mr. Winch defended the sit-down of single unemployed, declaring, "They were faced with a condition where they had to fight or die, and it is far better to fight as a unit than as an individual."

He said he went to Oakalla last week to inquire into disturbances there. The previous week, he found their basic cause was because the "tin-canners" now confined to not belong there. They were not criminals, but only desired work and wages. He urged their release.

MANY PROBLEMS IN TELEVISION

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Although television is scheduled to be offered for commercial operation next May, there are a myriad of problems to be ironed out before that time, Dr. W. R. C. Baker, director of engineering for the Radio Manufacturers Association said yesterday.

Dr. Baker presided at opening session of the annual fall conference of the RMA and the Institute of Radio Engineers.

"In the first place," he explained, "television will not come to the public like radio. When radio was introduced there was nothing to compare it with."

"Television will be introduced in a fairly completed stage of its development which will mean that it will meet immediate comparison with the existing radio and the talking pictures. People are going to be hard to satisfy."

Hard-of-hearing Bazaar Success

The bazaar held by the Victoria Club for the Hard-of-hearing on Saturday afternoon was opened by Mrs. C. J. Fagan, who gave the club credit for what it has accomplished.

The rooms were thronged all afternoon and the stalls well patronized. Winners of the cake were Mrs. Hanson and Miss Dodi-mead, and a basket of candles was won by Mrs. Friberg. Prize-winners in other contests will be announced on Wednesday evening at 1011 Government Street, when a program will be given over the group-hearing aid. All hard-of-hearing persons and their friends will be welcome.

ADVANCE PLANS FOR CONTEST

Drama Festival Committee Invites Teams To Enter

At a recent meeting of the British Columbia regional committee of the Dominion Drama Festival, held at the home of the chairman, it was announced that, as it was unable to arrange an elimination contest in Vancouver, the chairman has asked the Vancouver teams to enter the regional contest direct. Lieut.-Col. J. J. Barton has been appointed to act as the Vancouver representative of the committee.

Little Theatre Association to enter the highly successful play, recently presented, "Night Must Fall," for competition in the regional contest should it so desire.

The Beaux Arts Society has already received an invitation to enter Noel Coward's play, "We Were Dancing," presented by them last spring. The committee felt that the acting in these two plays was of such a high order as to justify a second presentation.

In view of the distance of London, Ont. from Victoria, and the extra expense to the selected team involved, it was decided to slightly increase the price of the tickets for the regional contest.

The regional secretary, Mrs. Duncan McBride, was requested to complete arrangements for the billeting of the Okanagan team which is expected to compete in the regional contest, which will take place in Victoria from February 15 to 18, 1939, or for as many nights as there are plays to fill.

Organizations wishing to compete should advise the honorary secretary at an early date, stating whether they wish to enter long or short plays. The names of the regional or of the final adjudicators have not been communicated.

MEET BY CHANCE AFTER 29 YEARS

Victoria Veteran Recognized By School Friend of Sunderland Days

"It's a small world," is a trite phrase, but it was the only one James Mason, Victoria letter carrier, could think of to apply to a situation in Vancouver last week.

He was attending a 2nd C.M.R. reunion and, like the other war veterans were a beret on which was pinned the battalion badge.

As he was having lunch in a hotel a man and his wife eyed the hat and badge with interest. They called him over and asked him what the badge signified.

He explained, "You must be from England not to know that," he added.

"Yes, and aren't you?" they asked him, and in the ensuing conversation Jim mentioned he was from Sunderland.

The lady studied Jim for a moment and then exclaimed suddenly: "Are you Jimmy Mason?"

Jimmy admitted it and after a moment, recollections tumbled upon him. "And you are Maria Bradley, or were, and you went to St. Bede's School, and we once won a walking contest together." He was correct.

Maria Bradley is Mrs. J. Richardson of Vancouver. The meeting on the other side of the world was 29 years after Mr. Mason left Sunderland.

"It's a small world all right," said the former Sunderlander, telling of the meeting.

By PETE SALLAWAY

BILLY BUXTON, Victoria featherweight, will make another start in an attempt to reach boxing heights in Seattle tonight. Billy is to share main event honors on the Sound City card and has been given a return match with Danny LaVerne, rugged little scrapper from San Francisco. The affair will be over 10 rounds and shares the spotlight with a 10-rounder between Chuck Nickason, Vancouver light heavyweight, and Lorenzo Pedro, also from the Golden Gate city.

There should be lots of fireworks in the bout between Buxton and LaVerne. Danny punched out a six-round decision over Billy on the Hostak-Krieger championship card, and looked plenty good doing it. Buxton couldn't land that lethal left on the Puerto Rican's chin and found himself finishing on the short end of the odds. If he is going to get anywhere in his division Buxton must win tonight, so the chips will be down, with no quarter asked. Billy's hands came through O.K. in the last bout, and if he loses tonight there will be no alibis.

When a chap gets married it is the usual thing for his friends to wish him the best of luck and so forth. But this week-end was the first time we read of a chap drawing congratulations when he still enjoys single blessedness. We refer to Joe Delahanty, red-haired sports scribe of the opposition. Writing in his column in the Seattle P.I., Alex Rose, well-known golf critic, said: "Joe Delahanty, Victoria Colonist golf editor, strolled down the matrimonial fairways a few days ago. Congratulations, Joe." We might state in passing it was Joe's brother Bill who became a benefactor.

Will you be having a totalizer reinstalled at the Willows racetrack for the benefit of the betting public, a petition is being circulated throughout the city. The tote was taken out at the local track two seasons ago, and the approximate odds board system of betting returned.

Those seeking to have the machine returned point out that bettors had the privilege of seeing their bets automatically registered and knowing at a glance what price a horse would pay if it won, and also the approximate place and show odds. The machines were removed on the grounds they were not recording properly. It is also claimed most of the trouble with the machines resulted through the combination tickets, the machines being originally intended to record straight $2 unit betting.

If successful in having the machines restored to the Willows the new tote will provide an exact odds board which will enable a bettor to see exactly what odds a horse will pay. The petition will be presented to the mayor and City Council of Victoria with a view to having them take the necessary action for the return of the tote.

Trust Slip Madigan and Saint Mary's to come up with a circus touch in American football. When the California team stopped at the Grand Canyon, en route to the New York Polo Grounds for the game with Fordham, Jerry Dowd, captain, centre, and punter, took occasion to kick a football a mile. Dowd punted from the brink of the gorge and the ball traveled 1,760 yards... down-winded.

Trail Wins Hockey

CALGARY — Displaying the same brilliant teamwork which gave them the Allan Cup and Dominion senior amateur hockey championship last spring Trail Smokeeaters defeated Calgary Stampede here last night 6 to 2.

It was the smelter city boys' third exhibition game of a series in which they will participate in Canada en route to Europe, where they are scheduled for 14 contests, including games in the world championship tournament in Switzerland. In their previous games Trail lost 6 to 2 and won 4 to 3 against Maple Leafs at Lethbridge.

Leafs Seek Third Straight Major Hockey Win; Rangers Entertain Detroit

Toronto Maple Leafs begin a two-game road trip tonight that will decide whether Normie Macmillan stays with them in the National Hockey League or drops to New York Rangers' farm club, Philadelphia of the International American League.

When Gordon Drillon of the Leafs suffered a broken thumb more than a week ago, the Leafs scurried about for a right-wing replacement, and finally obtained young Normie on a four game option. They knew his ability, for they brought the slim speedster along as a youngster, only to lose him from their Syracuse farm when Rangers invoked the draft rule.

The option expires Thursday night, when Toronto plays the Americans in New York. So far Normie's been doing all right except for a habit of getting all mixed up when he goes in on goal.

SEEK THIRD WIN

He'll have a chance to do something about that tonight, when Leafs seek their third straight victory against the Bruins at Boston. Sole possession of second place goes to the winning team, for the two are tied on the second rung with Americans.

Bruins will play without Eddie Shore again, but this time may be the last they will have to do without the mighty defenceman. Eddie said last night he "probably" would confer with league president Frank Calder today and that was taken as an indication somebody might be seeking peace to end Shore's holdout.

The Rangers, featuring their bearded defence of Muzz Patrick and Art Coulter, will make their first New York appearance of the season tonight, opposing Detroit Red Wings whom they defeated 4 to 3 in their opener Sunday night. The Wings have lost three straight games.

THE DOMINOES

To the Sports Editor:—From my accustomed Saturday night seat in the gallery of the High School gym during the interval of the Dominoes game with the clever Seattle Cammeranos, I was interested and entertained by the kindly, friendly action of one of the visiting players.

The halftime period is usually a pretty dull session, if it were not for the strenuous efforts of the enthusiastic young man who endeavors to cage baskets from the centre circle, there would be little else doing. Success to him and "more power to his elbow." At this time a robust member of the visiting team came on the floor wearing his uniform and a genial smile and engaged the attention of the group of small boys assembled there and evidently suggested that they have a little basketball practice. He then lined them up from the side facing the basket and under his direction each little fellow advanced with the ball, and the ability of many of them in caging the ball, to me was surprising. It struck me then that the example set by this visiting player might well be followed by experienced local players for the benefit of its youngsters and the entertainment of the audience.

In conclusion I want to add my tribute to the quality of this season's basketball team. Notably worthy of special notice are the Chapman brothers, veteran supporters of the team for many years, probably from its organization under another name. Other names such as the Patricks and the Pedens who graduated from the local team to become recognized leaders in other branches of national and international sports, through publicity and their own achievements, have added renown to Victoria, Vancouver Island and British Columbia, the place they claim as their home town.

Among other citizens I hope to see the day when the forum project may become an accomplished fact, and that we may again be spectators of the crowds who once gathered at the arena in the old hockey days to be thrilled by games with competing combinations from far and near.

JOHN G. GRANT.

Another popular member of Tooles is Tony Osborne. Remainder of the Vancouver lineup includes Doug Craig, Jim Pratt, Louis Chodot, Ian McLeod, Jack Edmondson and Doug Whyte.

Last Saturday Dominoes turned back Seattle Cammeranos. In their only previous engagement with a Vancouver club the locals suffered a setback at the hands of Stacks.

A preliminary game will start at 7.45 and the feature at 9.

First Victory For Vancouver

Champion Lions Turn Back Seattle 5 to 4 in Coast League Hockey

VANCOUVER — It took them exactly one week to do it, but Vancouver Lions have finally broken into the winning column in the Pacific Coast Hockey League.

Just when everyone was beginning to wonder what was wrong with the club that won the league championship last year, the Lions put on a third-period power surge that netted three goals and came from behind to win 5 to 4 from Seattle Sea Hawks here last night.

The victory, coming after Seattle had wiped out Vancouver's 2 to 0 first-period lead with a four goal offensive in the second, was the Canadian team's first win of the year. During the past week they had lost three games to other league teams.

The result didn't change the standings. Lions were still in the cellar behind Spokane Clippers, but it did dull Seattle's immediate chances of catching the undefeated Portland Buckaroos.

The teams meet again in Seattle tomorrow night.

SUMMARY

First period — 1. Vancouver, Rimstad (Palm), 9.40; 2. Vancouver, Palm (Rimstad), 13.35. Penalties, none.

Fans Boo Galento

Crowd Protests Technical Knockout Over Harry Thomas In Third Round; Down For Several Counts

PHILADELPHIA — Fight fans wondered today about Tony Galento's unimpressive return to the ring after an absence of four months.

Appearing in his first fight since he was taken ill with pneumonia in midsummer, the beery-looking saloon keeper of Orange, N.J., scored a three round technical knockout over Harry Thomas of Eagle Bend, Minn., at Convention Hall last night.

A crowd of 10,000 fans paid a gross gate of $23,000, boomed long and loud as Thomas dropped to the floor five times in the third round before Referee Tommy O'Keefe stopped the fight after 2:20 of the round. Galento weighed 236, Thomas 198 1/2.

Galento, ranked by the National Boxing Association as the leading challenger for Joe Louis' heavyweight championship, first flattened Thomas for counts ranging from four to eight.

Either Winnipeg Blue Bombers or Calgary Bronks will represent the west. The Bombers, Canadian champions in 1935 and runners-up to Toronto Argonauts last year, won the Western Interprovincial Union title Saturday by beating Bronks. Stripped of C.R.U. ineligible, the same teams will play a sudden-death game Saturday to determine which travels east.

In the other sector the contenders are Argonauts and Ottawa Roughriders in the Big Four, Sarnia Imperials and Montreal Maroons in the O.R.F.U. Argos and Roughriders are scheduled to play a home-and-home, total points series November 19 in Toronto and November 26 in Ottawa. On the same date National and Imperials decide the O.R.F.U. title.

Thus the eastern final between the O.R.F.U. and Big Four champions can not be played before December 3 and the Canadian final before December 10. If anything should happen to delay the eastern playdowns, the boys will be in moleskins till nearly Christmas.

The position of captain went to Major J. S. Pennington and J. Sparks was named vice-captain.

In addition to the election of officers, reports on the last season were submitted.

Canadian Team Will Not Tour

Impossible to Send Dominion Cricket Eleven To England Next Year

TORONTO — Canadian cricket authorities are unable to accept the Marylebone Cricket Club's invitation to send a representative team to England next summer. A. A. Dodge, secretary of the Canadian cricket advisory board, stated yesterday various difficulties had arisen to make such a tour impossible, but it was hoped to send a team in 1941.

Early this year the M.C.C., impressed with the showing made by Canadian players against the English touring team of 1937, invited Dominion officials to sponsor a tour in 1939 or 1941 in which Canadian cricketers would meet some of the first-class and minor counties and the universities.

If suitable arrangements can be made there is a possibility an Australian team may visit Canada in 1939. Some months ago Australian cricketers proposed a tour for last summer but it was impossible to arrange matches through lack of time.

AUSTRALIANS COMING

VANCOUVER — J. Fyfe Smith, president of the Mainland Cricket League and member of the Canadian board of control, said last night negotiations were going forward for an Australian cricket team to tour Canada next year.

The Australian rep team would probably arrive here sometime in June and play Canadian cities from coast to coast. They would also play matches in eastern United States cities as they did in their last tour in 1931, Smith said. The tour would last from six to eight weeks.

"If guarantees are forthcoming from Canadian cities to finance the tour, the Australian team will bring out an Australian team next year," the league president said.

Negotiations are being carried out through the Australian board of control.

Irish Serious Title Threat

Notre Dame Appear Headed for U.S. Football Championship

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — Notre Dame's 1938 football forces are just around the corner from the 10th undefeated-untied season, and possibly the fourth United States championship, in Irish gridiron history, but head coach Elmer Layden insisted today, "we're not even thinking of that now."

"We don't play for a national championship but to win the next game," said Layden, one of the 1924 United States championship team's famous "Four Horsemen." "Then, at the end of the season, if a championship is ours, so much the better."

The consensus is Layden's boys already have conquered their strongest opponents and, if the luck of the Irish continues, they will wind up their schedule with victories over Northwestern Saturday and Southern California December 3.

In any event, Notre Dame will not perform in a post-season game, such as the annual Rose Bowl classic. The school adopted a rule in 1926 prohibiting a post-season appearance in any sport.

DEER WHICH WAS CAUGHT ON FLY—That buck deer seen above surrounded by a group of Victoria girls is the one that was "caught on the fly"—a parmacene belle—recently at Killarney Lake. The girl seen kneeling was one of the persons in the boat when the freakish incident happened. The animal had been shot and was going down for the third time when a fly cast by the other occupant of the boat hooked into his hide and he was hauled ashore. The other girls in the picture are, left to right, Peggy Morrison, Gladys Cook, Isabel McKenzie, Phil Williams and Dot Hill.

Beds, Sleep and Dreams
2-BEDS IN WESTERN EUROPE

The Anglo-Saxons of old England commonly slept on wooden benches. Often the benches were boards fastened to the walls of small rooms. The bedding was chiefly straw, sometimes covered with a sack. People who could afford it had sheets.

A four-poster bed used 400 years ago in Flanders.

About 1,400 years ago it was the custom in Germany and France for people to sleep on benches or on carpets laid on the floor. Later the bed with wooden framework and stuffed mattress came into use.

As time went on, the nobles and richer folks of western Europe had better and better beds in their homes, castles or palaces. At least the beds and the bedding became more costly. There were stuffed quilts and soft pillows, also coverlets embroidered with gold.

Many beds were fitted with heavy posts at the corners, with a roof of a sort resting on the posts. Richly-worked hangings covered the sides of some four-poster beds.

During one period, beds of extra large size came into fashion. Some of these were eight feet long and seven feet wide, and others were even larger. In England we may see today an example of the extra-size beds. It is known as the "Great Bed of Ware," and is 12 feet long and nearly as wide as it is long!

Almost 500 years ago, King Louis XI started the "bed of justice" custom in France. This king ordered a bed to be placed in the parliament building. While he lay in the bed, the French princes sat in chairs nearby. The high officers of the state stood up, and the less important officers knelt down. Later French kings followed the same custom, and it was not ended until the French Revolution.

Another strange custom in France was for a king to own many beds. If he did not rest well in one, he would try another. We have a list of 413 beds in the palaces of King Louis XIV. They were used by the king and members of the royal family, not by the servants. Some of the beds of this king were adorned with pearls, others with gold and silver work.

Another French ruler, Francis I, sent a camp-bed as a present to King Henry VIII of England. The camp-bed was covered with red velvet and was embroidered with pearls and leaves of gold.

All-metal beds began to come into widespread use about 90 years ago. We still have all-metal beds, and they have special points in their favor. One good thing about them is the use with which they may be taken apart and moved from one place to another. Many persons, however, like wooden beds better.

The chief way we have improved modern beds is by making better mattresses and better springs on which to rest them.

SIDE GLANCES By George Clark

"Don't ask me to stop your father. He's been doing that at parties ever since I can remember."

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—What part of a man's income is it fair for a wife to have? My husband earns $10,000 a year and my allowance is $200 a month, which he complains is too darn much. Out of my allowance I have to pay for all the food, running the house, my clothes, club dues, doctors' and dentists' bills, as well as anything I spend for pleasure. I resent very much his feeling that he gives me too much, because when we were married 30 years ago he made only $20 a week and I gladly slaved to help him get a start. He wanted to take a commercial course. I encouraged him to do it, and while he was doing it he and the baby and I lived on $10 a week because I pinched every penny, made our clothes and kept out of debt. I wish he would remember that and show that he feels that I had some part in making his fortune, instead of just being somebody he has to support. We are in our sixties now and I would like to play a little and not feel that my husband begrudges me even my food. What about it? MILLIE.

Answer: When a woman has been the kind of a wife that you have been, Millie, then she has earned her money. She has earned half of whatever he has by her labor, by her sacrifices, by her keeping him comfortable and well and happy so that he could do the work he was engaged in, by her bolstering up his morale when he was discouraged and faint-hearted and tempted to turn quitter.

Whatever your husband's income, you should share 50-50 with him in it, and he is certainly singularly lacking in gratitude and a sense of justice when he begrudges you even a pittance of the money you have worked so hard for. Why, even if he had paid you only the wages of a servant you would have a tidy fortune of your own now.

There is no way to separate a stingy man from his bankroll painlessly, so your case is hopeless, unless you have nerve enough to go along and buy what you like and have it charged to him. He will grouse over that, but he grouches anyway, so what's the difference?

DEAR MISS DIX—I like what you write and it doesn't matter to me whether you are male or female, but I have been told that you are a man, and I would like to know just to satisfy my curiosity whether this is true. WILLIAM.

Answer: Far from it. I am a woman. Always have been. And expect to continue to be one as long as I live. Don't let anybody tell you differently. DOROTHY DIX.

Notes of the Legislature

Senator J. W. de B. Farris, K.C., has not yet been paid for presenting the B.C. government's brief to the Rowell Commission. Hon. John Hart replied to questions in the House. He said Senator Farris is still engaged in the work and his remuneration has not been determined.

More than a third of the cost of the University Endowment Lands development has been recovered by the government so far, Hon. A. Wells Gray replied to questions. Total cost of the project has been $2,818,856, out of which the province has received $956,255 in rents and sales. On the Camp Lister scheme the government has recovered $130,850 out of a total cost of $1,001,751.

B.C. has declined to accept a 50 per cent interest payment tendered by Alberta on bonds held by the treasury, Hon. John Hart replied to questions.

In the last five years the provincial government has helped 110 destitute persons to return to England, Hon. G. S. Pearson replied to questions. The province cannot deport them, he explained, but when they show they may become self-supporting if they return it helps them with their passage.

The treasury still has power to borrow up to $10,835,103 without asking the Legislature for permission, Hon. John Hart informed Herbert Anscomb, Victoria. The minister also stated that while the province draws only 3 per cent interest on its bank balances, it pays the bank 2 1/2 per cent and 3 1/2 per cent on its current borrowings, and 3 per cent on its Dominion loans.

A deposit of $150, representing two months' rent, was left with the mayor today and the company will move in at the beginning of January. According to information received by the mayor, the firm will employ 12 men here. All alterations necessary to make the building conform to plant requirements will be done at the expense of the tenant, who was given an option to purchase up to the end of next year.

The property is assessed at $17,300 for land and improvements.

Forest Funds Need Increase

Chief Forester Manning Says More Money Required for Service

The funds available for the forestry service of British Columbia were too small for the great task of forest protection and reforestation, E. C. Manning, chief forester, told the forestry committee of the Legislature this morning.

The service, he said, was understaffed and the men were tired by excessive work. No important new legislation was needed at the moment, he said, but the service must have more money.

He said at least 50 per cent of the revenues from the forests should be put back into the forests for fire prevention and fighting and general conservation. More and more money must be put back into the forests, whose industries give such large revenues to the province, if the forests are to remain the backbone of provincial economy, he said.

FOREST REVENUE

"The safeguarding of the forest resources has been inadequately financed," Mr. Manning said, while 75 per cent of the revenues of the forest have been used for every other type of government service, entirely apart from the forests.

YOUNG FARMERS OF B.C. WIN IN EAST

Members of Agriculture Committee Praise Department for Junior Work

Boys and girls of British Columbia did exceptionally well at Toronto's Royal Winter Fair, now in progress, J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, told the agriculture committee of the Legislature this morning.

He announced the following prize winners: Ladner Potato Club, first; Chilliwack Dairy Club, second; Chilliwack Swine Club, fifth and Kamloops Beef Club, fifth.

These awards were taken in all Canada competitions.

On the motion of George Murray, the committee passed a resolution commending the encouragement given the boys and girls by the Department of Agriculture, and asking that the work be extended to more distant parts of the province. At present most of the junior clubs are centred in the Fraser Valley.

The committee will ask that copies of the Empire Settlement report, as prepared by Sir Henry Page-Croft and released last week-end in London, be given each member of the Legislature.

IMPRESSED WITH CANADA'S WONDERS

Dominions Salvation Army Head Addresses Kiwanis Luncheon

Canada has natural advantages of which its people should be justly proud, and its development in many ways far outstrips other countries of the world in proportion to its population, Commissioner George Carpenter, Canadian head of the Salvation Army, told the Kiwanis Club at luncheon in the Empress Hotel today.

Commissioner Carpenter spoke on "Canada As I See It," and gave his impressions since his arrival 15 months, compared with his impressions of other countries of the world, 30 of which he has visited personally.

All he had seen in Canada had far exceeded his fondest expectations, the commissioner said. Among the many things which had impressed him most were: Canada's ravishing beauty, the friendliness of Canadians, the natural wonders of British Columbia, the high standard of living, the attractive conveniences of life, including the standard of electrical and telephone service offered; the splendid education record which boasted 95 per cent of children 10 years of age being literate, the practical approach of the Dominion to social service, the development of secondary industries and the remarkable development of mining, agriculture and aviation.

Vocal selections were presented by Mrs. Charles Goodwin, accompanied by Miss Kathleen Irvine.

Board Modifies Ruling on Fees

Age Limit at High School Extended to 19 And Exceptions Made

The City School Board regulation imposing fees on certain high school students was broadened at a board meeting last night, when it was reported several hundred students would be affected by the ruling.

The amended regulation approved last night set fees of $60 a year for students who have reached 19 years before completing grade 12 and for those who have completed grade 12 and continue to attend school.

This regulation will not apply when it is provided a student has not received four years' tuition at a provincial high school. Formerly the regulation set the age limit at 18 years and the proviso of four years' free study was not included without application on the part of the student.

When the subject was brought to the attention of the board, Trustee R. F. Green said he wanted it clear, understood that the board was not introducing a new regulation when it established the ruling a month ago but merely amending the old regulation.

The old regulation, he pointed out, was set at a time when there was only a three-year high school course. Press reports of the board's action at its last meeting had been interpreted to mean the regulation was something new and Trustee Green wished to correct this idea.

The modification of the regulation last night was brought about by the report that the fee plan would work a hardship on many parents and would embrace considerably more students than was at first anticipated.

Farm Troubles Given Airing

Agriculture Committee Of Legislature Hears Farmers 'Take Butt End'

Because the farmer was unorganized "he gets it in the neck every time," L. A. Shepherd, C.C.F. Delta, told the agriculture committee of the Legislature this morning.

The wholesaler and retailer, the freight and milling companies were making fair wages, but the farmer was "taking the butt end," he said. "It is only fair the man who is producing the food of the country should be protected."

George Murray, Liberal, Lillooet, said he would like to see the poultry business of the province brought under control. He said at present it was a cut-throat proposition and prices were not set. He felt the committee should ask the Minister of Agriculture what steps could be taken to bring the poultry business under control.

TOO MUCH WORK

"Now is the time for the government to get into the poultry business and control it," Mr. Murray said. "The women of the Fraser River are working themselves to death to pay their losses."

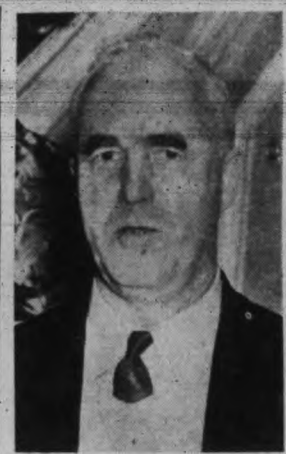

He said he would ask the Legislature's permission to have the agriculture committee make a thorough study of the poultry business.

Frank Putnam, C.C.F., Nelson-Creston said, "you can't put farming on a business basis. It is a mode of living. Any man who cannot produce his own sustenance is not a farmer, in my opinion."

Members of the committee felt poultry should be produced on the farms of B.C., not in area around Vancouver and New Westminster.

Discussing the size of farms in the Fraser Valley L. H. Eyres, Conservative, Chilliwack, said "up to 10 acres a farmer is keeping the land; over 10 acres the land is keeping the farmer." That applied only to dairy farms, he thought small fruit was the only way a farm under 10 acres could pay.

Members of the agriculture committee are Louis LeBourdais, Cariboo; C. E. Bull, South Okanagan; Glen Braden, Peace River; D. W. Strachan, Dewdney, and Macgregor Macintosh, the Islands.

REMAINS SILENT—W. H. Plant, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai, would neither confirm nor deny that he was on his way to present to President Roosevelt details of Japanese encroachment in U.S. trade stakes in China when he arrived here in the Ss. Empress of Russia last night.

Distance Flight To City Sought

London-Esquamalt Hop Suggested as Celebration Highlight

The suggestion that the Royal Air Force be invited to make a distance flight from London to Esquamalt to coincide with the arrival in Victoria of Their Majesties King George and Queen Elizabeth, next summer, was advanced by Alderman W. H. Davies, chairman of the city celebrations committee, along with other festival plans at a meeting in the City Hall today.

The alderman remarked upon the sensational flight made by R.A.F. planes from Egypt to Port Darwin, Australia, a distance of 7,000 miles, last week. He did not think the proposed London-Esquamalt trip would be as long. He noted that such a flight would be of considerable military value in determining the time required for rapid air transport from Great Britain to the farthest west Empire naval base in the event of hostilities on the Pacific Coast.

The alderman laid further proposals before the committee in a summarized program which called for advancement of Naval Week festivities to June. He also asked that a telegram be dispatched to Ottawa to determine how long Their Majesties would be in Victoria and what civic events would be suitable for them.

OTHER SCHEMES

Tentatively listed as city functions were landing ceremonies in which he hoped to see school children's choirs participate, a procession to the City Hall for the delivery of an address and presentation of gift by the city to the royal visitors in the council chamber, an Indian regatta at the Gorge, a school pageant at the Willows or Macdonald Park, a grand military tattoo, similar to that of last year, a costume or naval ball, fireworks and street carnival, a torchlight parade, smoking concerts, international naval athletic contests, box lacrosse between Indians and white people, a stampede and other functions.

As a decorative scheme for the city he suggested living tableaux on the route of parade from the dock to the City Hall, with cedar strings and flags, giant flower boxes and other floral decorations.

Alderman Davies also favored a move to secure co-operation of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, the Provincial Police, Royal Navy, Canadian Navy, United States Navy units and military groups with international representation.

PROCEED SOON ON WATER RATE CASE

Examination for discovery of R. F. Blandy, the legal preliminary to court action on the city's suit against Oak Bay on the water rate issue, is scheduled for Thursday at 3, it was learned today at the Court House.

The procedure is a requisite part of preliminary work leading to the hearing of the case. The point in contest is the city's ability to levy the charge set this year by the city water board for water supplied to Oak Bay. The figure was set at the beginning of the year, following expiration of a preceding agreement. The new price was considerably in excess of the old. Since the matter was first broached, the suggestion has been advanced that Victoria's increased price is still below the legal figure for which the city should sell its water.

Seek to Settle Wage Differences

School Trustees Would Avoid Salary Arbitration If Possible

City school trustees are anxious to settle disputed points of the new high school teachers' wage agreement without arbitration if possible they said last night.

The board received from C. L. Campbell, chairman of the teachers' salary committee, a letter stating the teachers wished to take the schedule to arbitration and notifying the board of the appointment of Harry Charlesworth, secretary of the British Columbia Teachers' Association, as the teachers' arbitrator.

The letter also asked notification of the board's representative on the arbitration commission. Trustee W. P. Marchant said he thought the board should attempt to settle the difficulties without the necessity of arbitration, although, of course, the teachers were entitled to a commission's decision under the School Act.

He felt, however, the teachers should be requested to state the points which they desired arbitrated and the board would consider whether agreement could be reached between the two parties. In accordance with this idea a letter was ordered forwarded to the teachers containing this request.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

R. W. Beck is scheduled to reach Victoria to continue his work on franchise and transportation issues on Friday and is expected to stay for five days or a week. Completion of the major Nebraska projects, on which he has been engaged, was announced at the beginning of the week. Mr. Beck, at present in Chicago, is scheduled to start his westward trip tomorrow.

A permit for $5,000 repairs and improvements to the Mable Block, 713 Johnson Street, damaged recently by fire, was issued by the city business inspector's department to Mrs. W. M. Mable today. H. S. Goodwin is contractor for the job.

Cossack Singers Charm Audience

Talented Exiled Russian Officers Cordially Received

By G. J. D.
Enterprising, vitalized, indomitable in zest and spirit, the Don Cossacks Chorus, a talented group of exiled Russian officers, once more captured a Victoria audience that crowded to capacity the Empire Theatre yesterday evening.

In all vocal matters that are their very own in quality, blend, intelligence, precision, rhythm, unusually magnificent climax-building, and in sudden release of tension, Serge Jaroff, the remarkable conductor, has made a finely flexible instrument which he commands and plays upon with the utmost skill. And all alert are his responding forces; the soaring tenors, the resounding baritones, the booming basses and the rare, astonishing contra basses, all in wonderful sostenutos, lengthening pauses, perfect tune and tone, and cohesion which Serge Jaroff with amazingly adroit gestures so well aduces.

All these the audience, quick to recognize, responded with unbounded enthusiasm, which as the evening proceeded became more demonstrative and at the conclusion of each item brought the conductor two or more times to the stage, culminating at the conclusion of the selected numbers in a triumphant paean of applause to both the director and the singers.

The program, a model of arrangement, several numbers being arranged by Serge Jaroff himself, two of which, "Those Evening Bells," a version of Tennyson's poem and the concluding number, "Behind the Urals" (Don Cossack song), proved prime favorites.

Other outstanding numbers were the magnificent cantata, "For the 950th Anniversary of the Baptism of Russia," by Schwedoff, irresistible in the Cossack's style, sentient interpretation and vocalized devices; "Two Gypsy Songs" (Schwedoff), exquisite in rhythmic and dynamic pronouncements and the pure Cossack music "A Soldier's Joke," the marching Cossack "Two Soldiers' Infantry Songs," and the comic song, "The Little Ditch," said to be impossible of translation.

The chorus, under Lily Laverick's western direction at Vancouver, is on tour under the International Celebrity Concerts at New York.

Utility License Rates to Increase

Vancouver sought before the private bills committee of the Legislature to remove a limit of $100 on its trade license fee for public utilities.

Corporation Counsel C. E. McTaggart announced an agreement had been reached with the companies under which the maximum for the C.P.R., C.N.R. and B.C. Electric Railway Co. would be $1,500, and for other utility companies $500.

Other changes in the city charter discussed with the committee included proposals to hold an advance poll at the civic election, plans to set standards for housing and power to turn over minor traffic regulation to civic officials without passage of a by-law.

Mt. Douglas Camp Magazine Planned

The men of the Public Works Department camp at Mount Douglas Park plan to publish a magazine of their own, the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau was told this morning in a letter which asked for material dealing with the history and geography of the Mount Douglas district.

The main idea is to give the men an interest in the park so that they will feel it is interesting work they are doing; and not just another job," the letter explains.

It adds that the men are hard up for magazines and books, and are looking for odds and ends to help furnish and decorate their recreation hut.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Andrew Williamson, British Columbia Police special constable, appeared in county court today and elected for speedy trial on charges of assault, causing bodily harm to Robert Gardner at Blubber Bay, B.C., on September 18. Judge A. M. Harper fixed November 23 as the date of the hearing.

Gardner charged, he was beaten by the special police constable at Blubber Bay where police used tear gas and riot sticks to break up a fracas between striking and non-striking employees of the Pacific Lime Company on September 17.

'Too Fast for Me,' Says Technocrat

Technocracy in Race With Relief; $30 Every Thursday 'Dumb,' Says Howard Scott

"We are not interested if the rest of the world strangles itself to death by war... the only war we are interested in is the one right here on this continent... $30 every Thursday is just as dumb as social credit, and no dumber than Communism, Fascism or any other form of government in existence at the present time."

So said tall nonchalant grey-suited Howard Scott, technocracy czar, today on his arrival in Victoria. The chief executive officer will speak at the Empire Theatre tomorrow night at 8.

"We are organizing for something inevitable. The situation in North America has developed into a race between technocracy and relief; in fact it is going too fast for me," Mr. Scott said.

Technocracy, he said, had gone ahead by leaps and bounds, but it was against the constitution of the movement to equal any figures in that regard. It had increased $30 per cent in Saskatchewan in the last year, and even more so in British Columbia. The movement had offices in 71 places in Canada today, as compared with one three years ago.

In his travels on behalf of the movement, Mr. Scott covers approximately 30,000 miles each year. He said technocracy could not function in Europe because there were not the proportionate raw materials available.

Credit Men Hear About Sales Law

The way in which the provincial Conditional Sales Act worked for the benefit of both buyer and seller in an installment sale was explained to the Credit Granters' Association at a luncheon in Spencer's dining-room today by W. P. Lawson, barrister.

For the seller the act gave protection, provided the sale were properly registered, against repossession being defeated by the rights of a third party who had bought the goods from the original purchaser without knowledge of the conditional sale. It also provided for registration with the land registry office of conditional sales of goods which might become fixtures, such as machinery, preserving the seller's rights in them.

To the buyer the act gave a better opportunity to redeem goods in the case of their repossession by the seller.

Mr. Lawson suggested legal points which should be included in a conditional sales agreement for the protection of the seller.

At the end of his address he answered a number of questions on technicalities.

L. E. Evenden, president of the association, was in the chair.

Judgment was reserved yesterday by Judge H. H. Shandley following completion of the County Court action between Peter Brogan and F. and E. Emson over a sum of $120 alleged loaned by the plaintiff to the defendant to cover repairs to the launch Glenda.
